"Without ideals, without effort, without scholarship, without philosophical continuity, there is no such thing as education."

A. Flexner

And here there is education.

Donald Lewis, National Merit Finalist

David Sitler, National Merit Finalist

And here there is effort, effort which results in academic accomplishment,

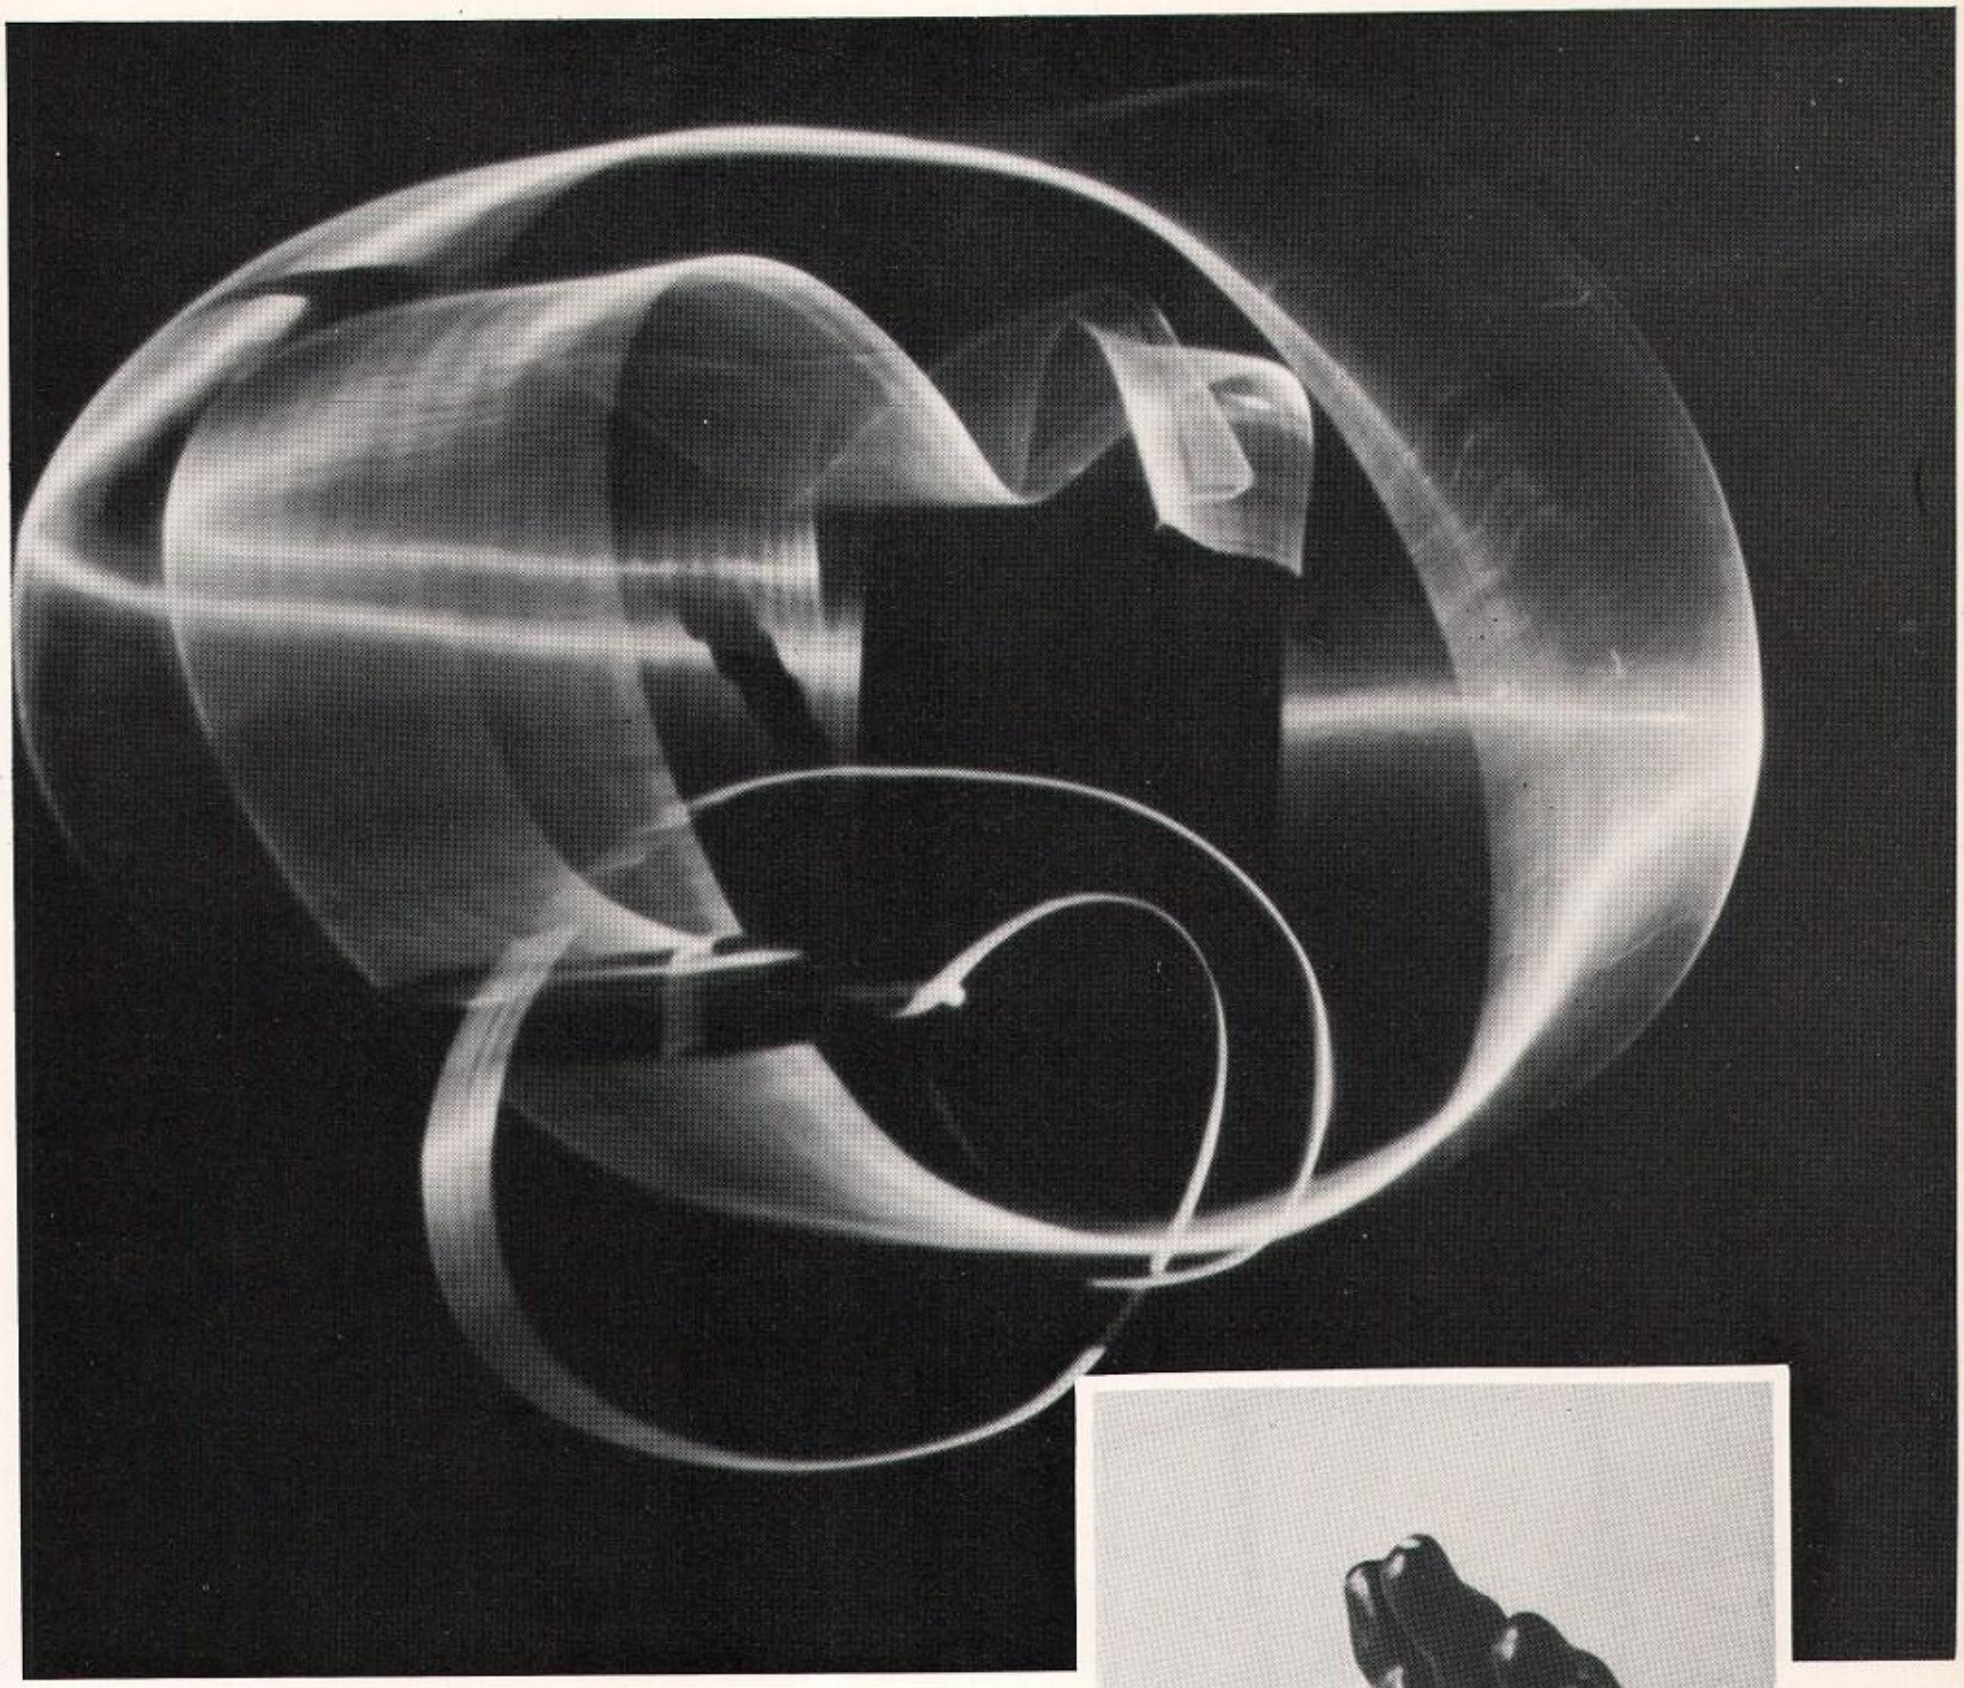
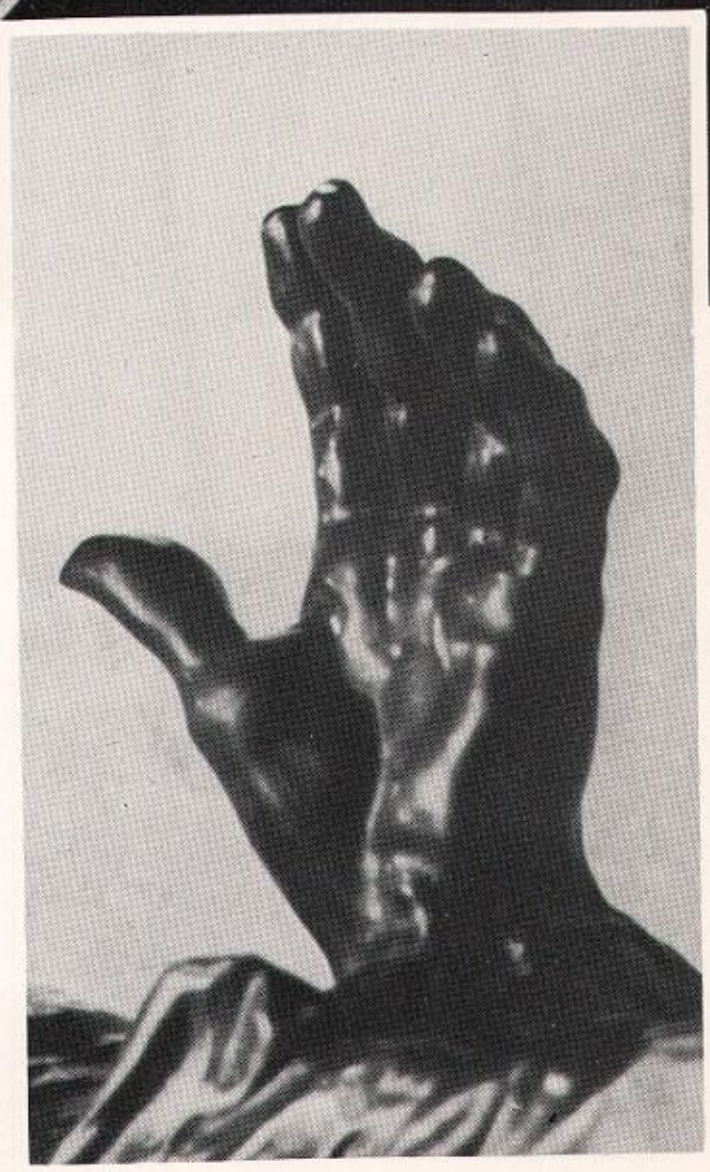
Shirley Bean, Commercial Student

Gerald Schussler, Vocational Student





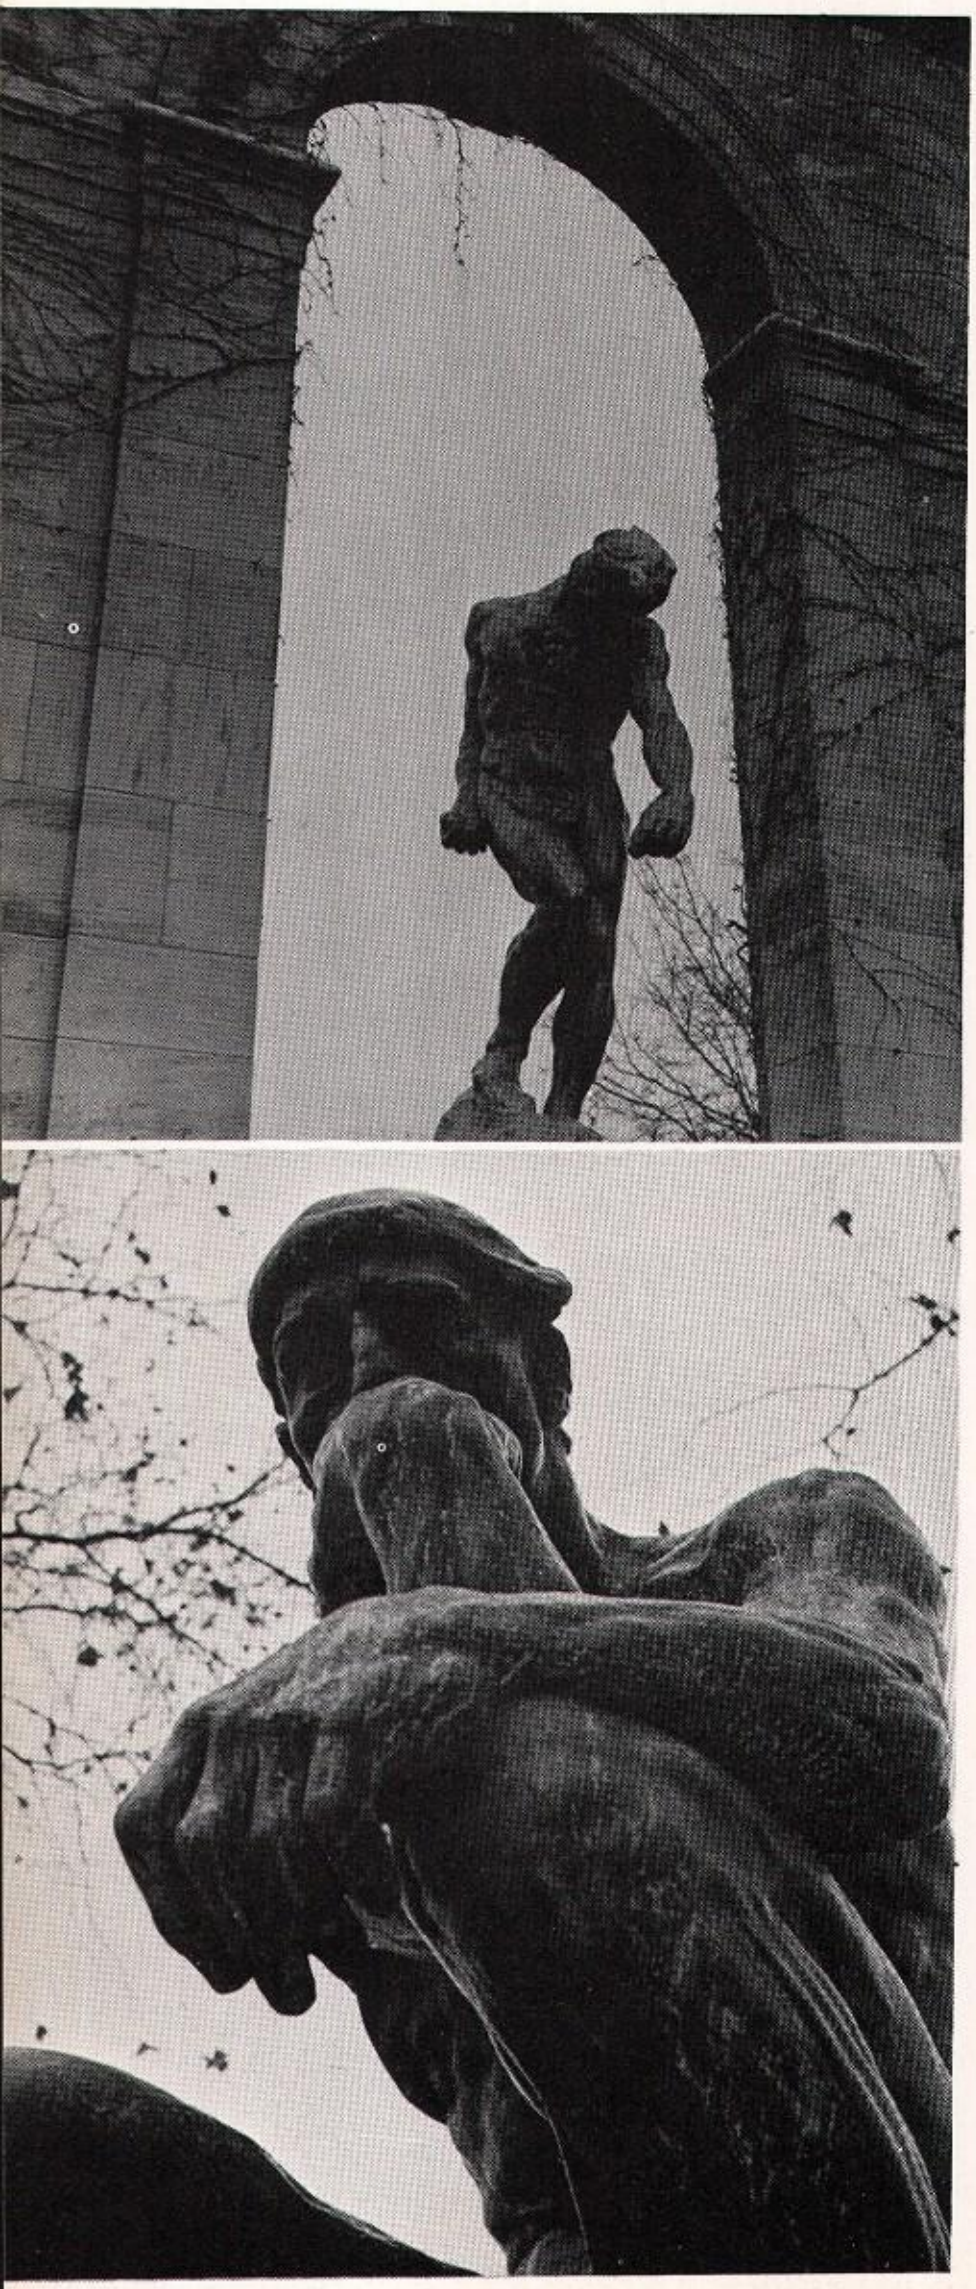
progress,

creativity,

opportunities,

acute awareness, and sensitivity.

And the outcomes of that effort are ideals:



goodness of man,

wisdom,

perfection,

virtue,

truth,

honesty.

And here there is

scholarship; scholarship

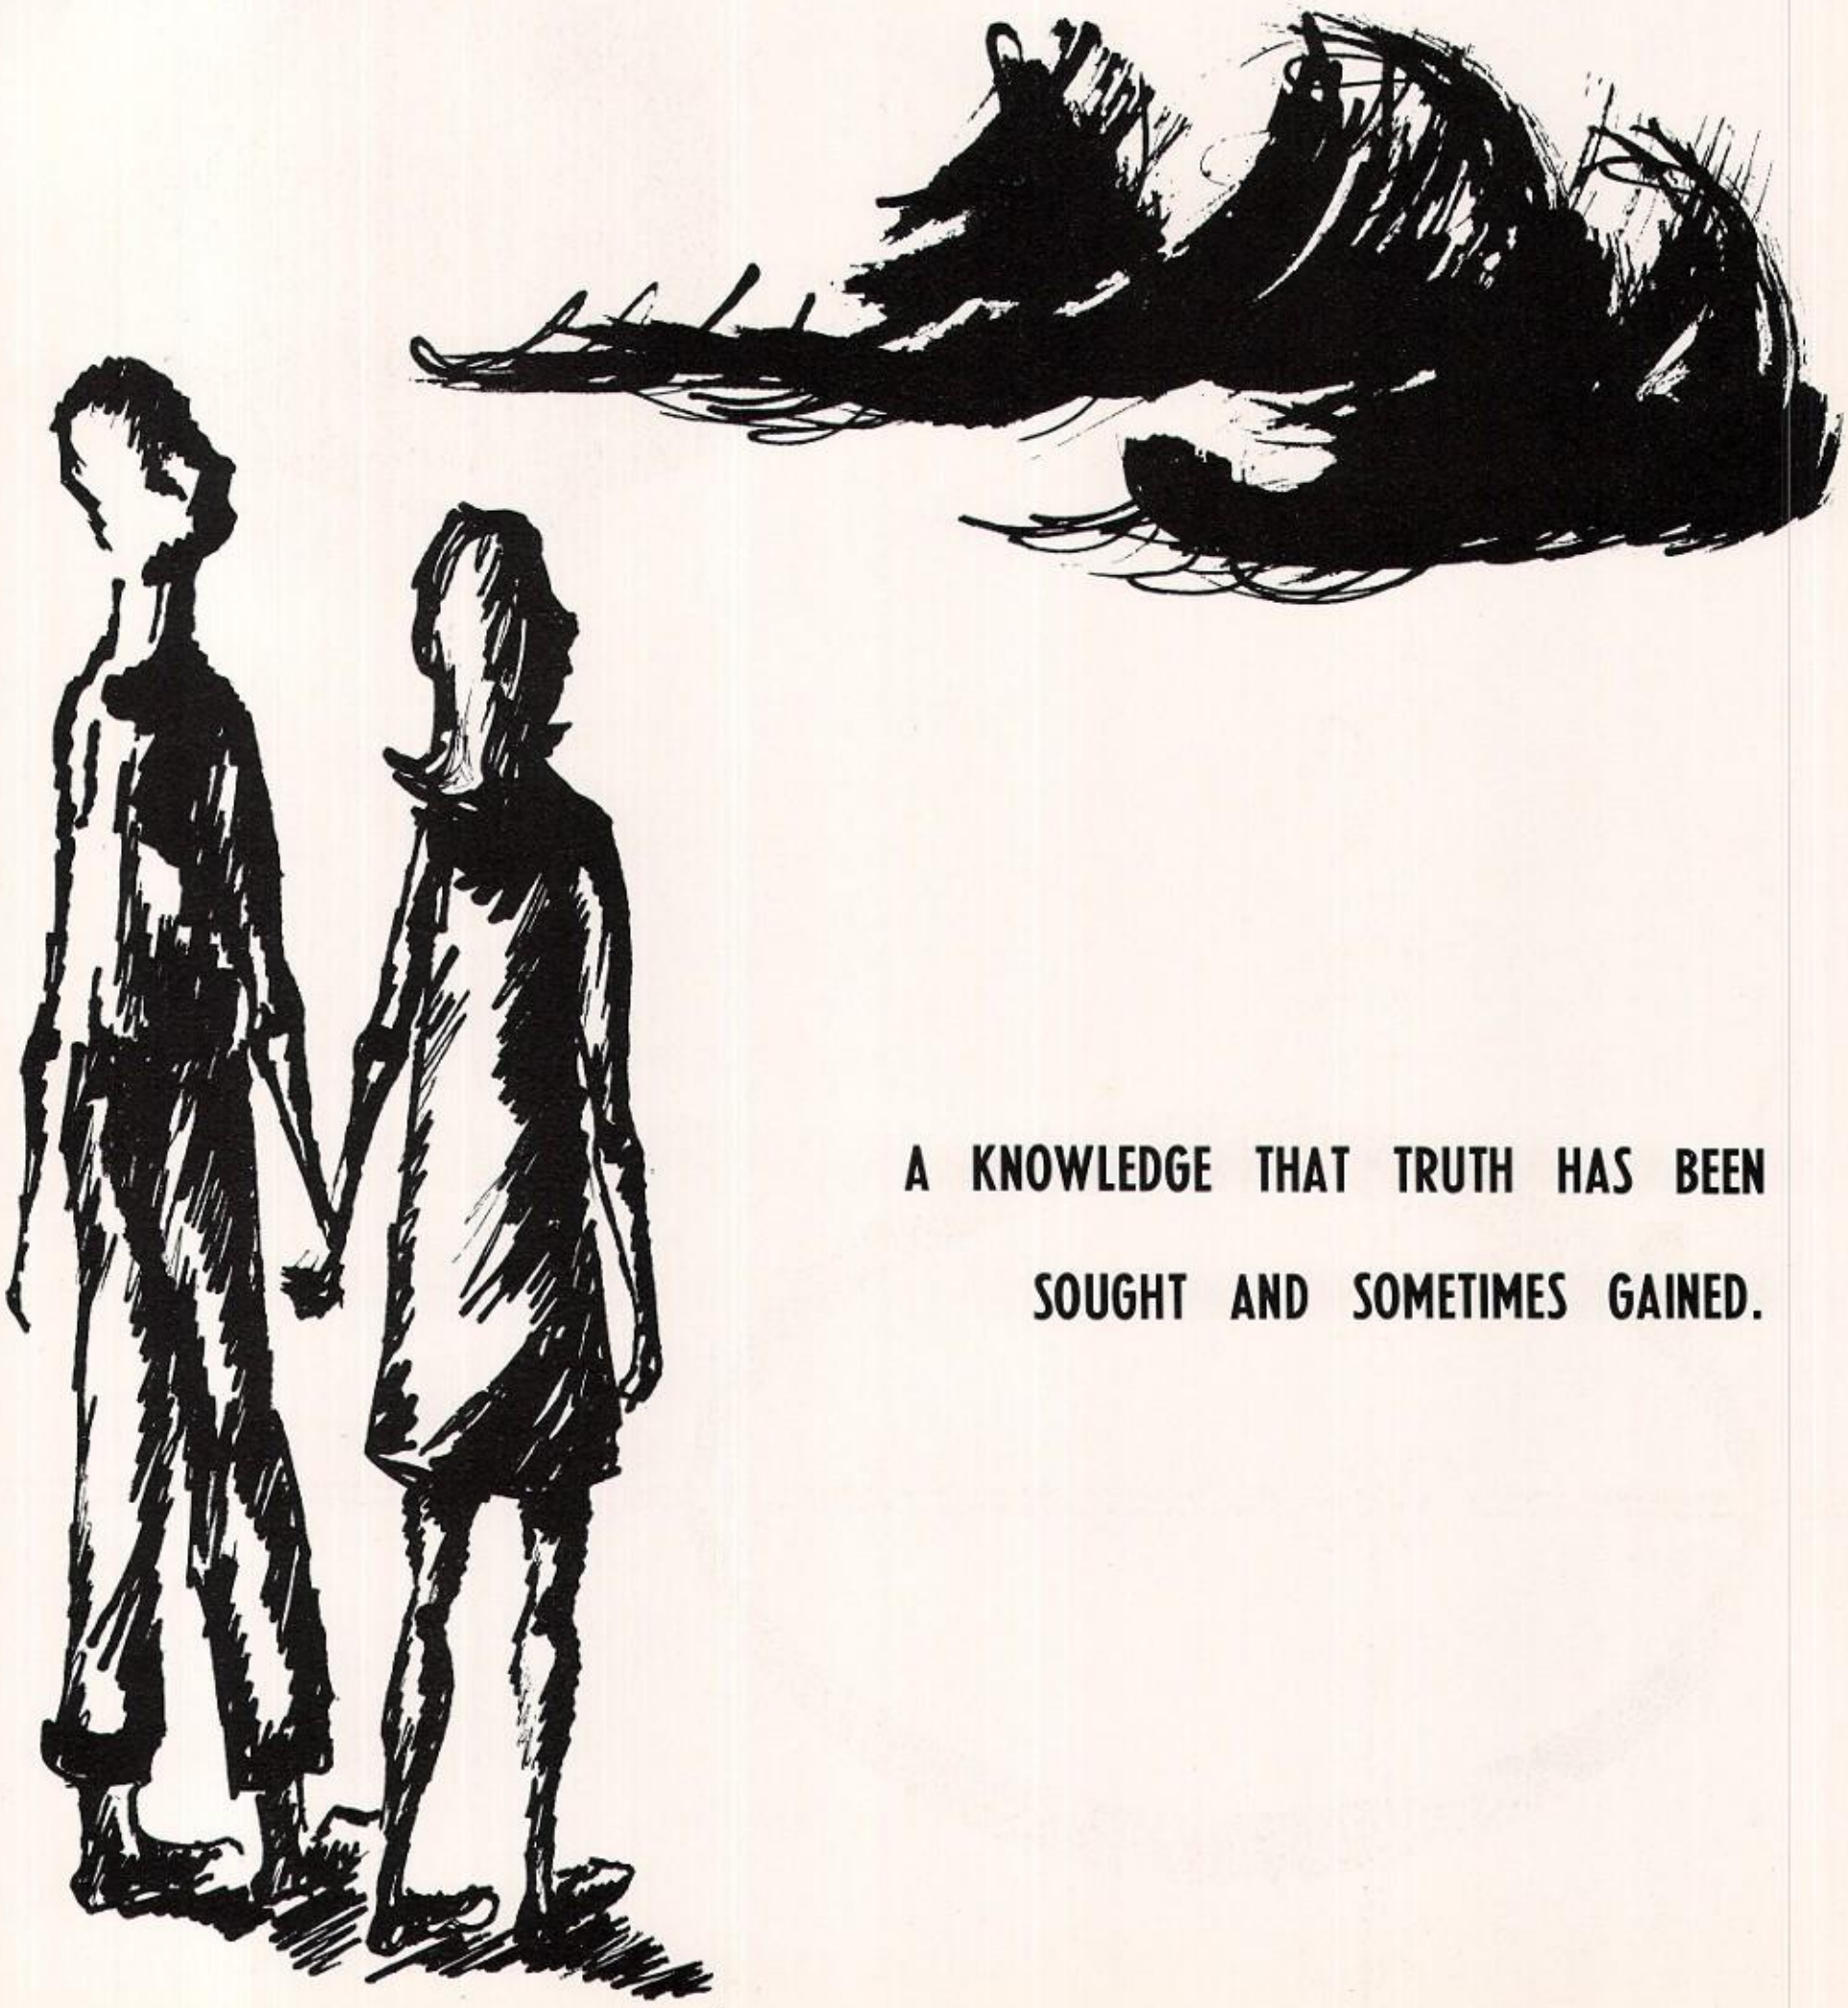
of great men,

great concepts,

great books,

great institutions.

A SCHOLARSHIP WHICH ARRANGES THESE IDEALS INTO PROPER PERSPECTIVE WHICH CULMINATES IN A PHILOSOPHICAL CONTINUITY, A WAY OF LIFE, A STANDARD OF LIVING, HAPPINESS,



A KNOWLEDGE THAT TRUTH HAS BEEN SOUGHT AND SOMETIMES GAINED.

JUNIOR PROM

THE MAN FROM E.C.C.H.

Mr. Thompson, Class Advisor

Becky Rott, Class Secretary

The election of the officers pictured on these pages gave the Junior Class a good start in 1965. The Juniors were involved in many events. Janet Smith was elected Junior Miss. The Junior school spirit was to become known as exuberantly revitalized. Ending the year, the long anticipated Junior Prom was the Junior's last function.

Chip, To a fellow Olds owner. Maybe someday you'll get a 442 too! Dave

STUDENT COUNCIL

One of the busiest organization at North Penn is the Student Council with its wide range of activities. Beside the usual jobs of maintaining good student-faculty relations, an active store, and lively school spirit, this year's council, in conjunction with the F.T.A., instituted a new student tutoring program. They also began a student exchange with Lansdale Catholic High School, in order to bring about better relations between the schools. And thus, they extend the role of the Student Council in creating a better school and a better community.

INTERNATIONAL FRIENDSHIP

Coordinating the International Friendship Program at North Penn was the primary function of the School Affiliation Committee guided by Mr. Kenneth Weir. The 35 member group worked in cooperation with the American Friend's Service Committee arranging pen pals, looking for exchange students, and keeping in close contact with our sister school in Germany in order to maintain an active affiliation. The Committee, in its third year, is now looking forward to initiating the student exchange program in other countries so that the student body of North Penn will be a better informed and more understanding body.

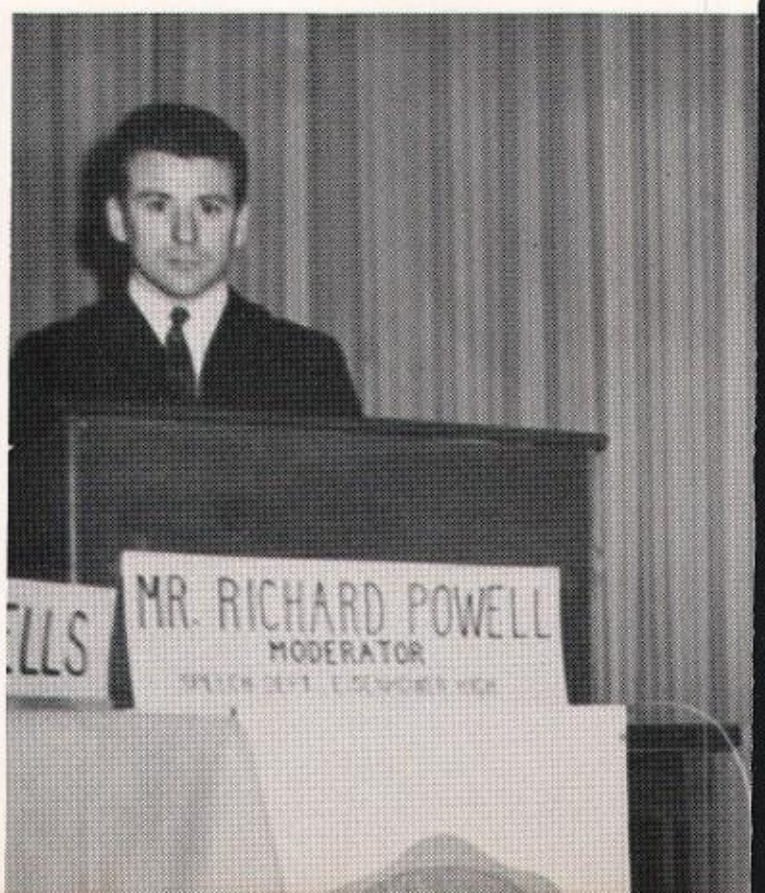
A WORLD WHICH RECOGNIZES A POINT OF VIEW

Forum provides an opportunity for students to develop and defend their ideas, while recognizing and analyzing the viewpoint of others on current events. As a member of the Bux-Ches-Mont Forum, North Penn took part in dinner debates at several schools in the area during the year. Through these and other intramural debates, the students learn the fundamentals of debating while they develop their skills in public speaking.



Prior to the beginning of another forum meeting, Don Lewis confers with Gerry Martin (center) and Jacquie Loquet (right) on the topic to be discussed.

ACCOLADE

Conducting interviews, writing copy, arranging layouts, while meeting deadlines are most difficult tasks. Yet the task of recording the events of a year while preserving its memories is a most rewarding one. The eight editors and staff of twenty who worked under the guidance of advisors Mr. Frank Muccari and Mr. Thomas Collins to produce the '65 ACCOLADE found this to be completely true. They worked after school all year to produce a yearbook reflective of a very fine school and an excellent senior class. The ACCOLADE is more than a mere photo album with words dispersed throughout. It stands as a tribute to the class of '65 and indeed, a tribute to North Penn High School.

1965 ACCOLADE Staff

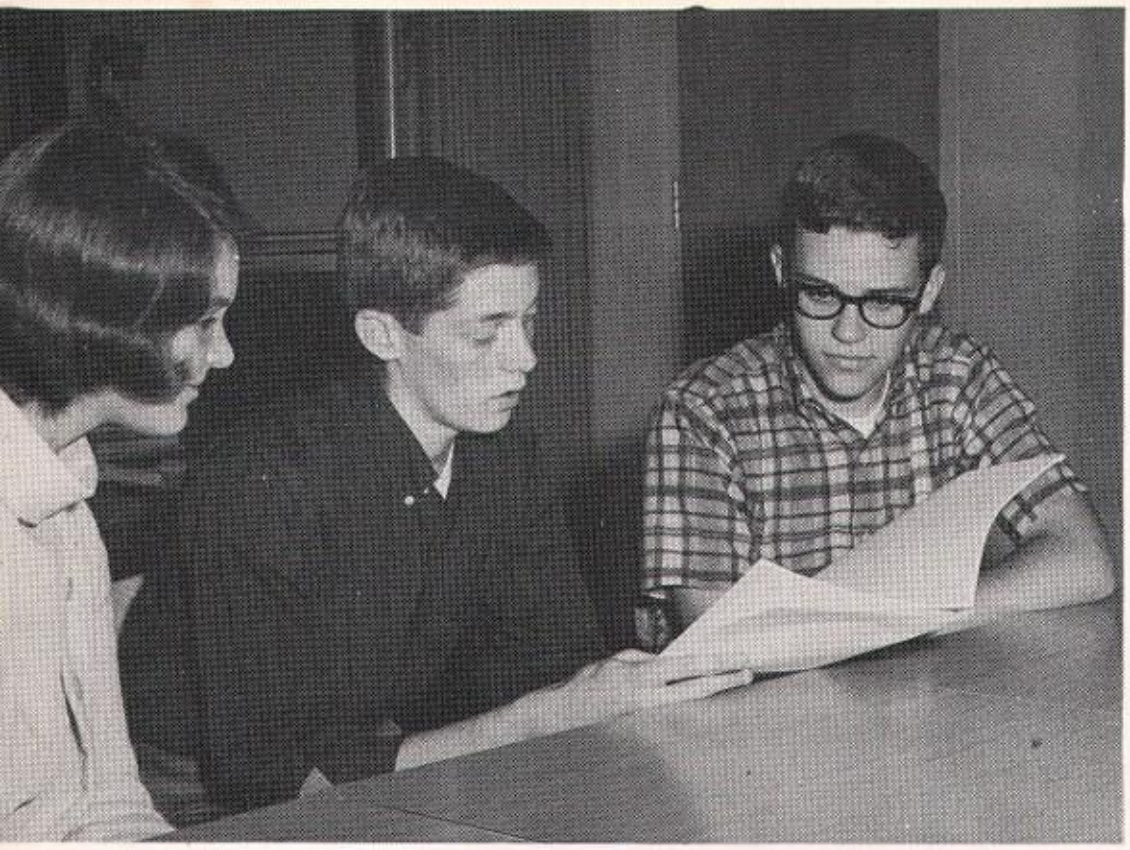
Linda Boltz, Marcia Smith, Carol Derstein, Eleanor Kemp, Mary O'Connor, Jim Mack, Dietta Tyner, Esther Mann, Virginia Williams, Wendy West-Typist, Linda Troxel-Typist, Bonnie Rittenhouse-Typist, Cheri Ziegler-Typist, Tom Miller-Photographer.

Senior editor Sandy Bergey and staff members Linda Boltz and Eleanor Kemp study the problems of senior layouts.

Working on the layouts for Underclassmen and Faculty sections are Dietta Tyner and Editor Pete Beaver.

Office editor Darlene Warner checks through Accolade files.

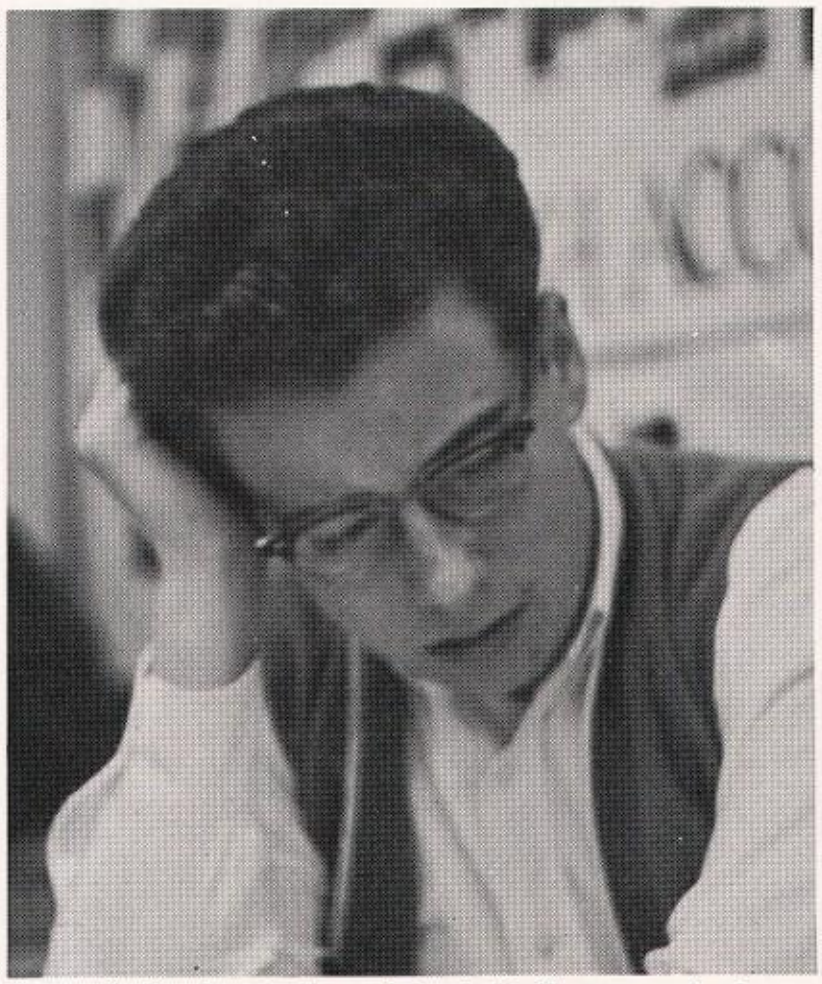
Literary advisor Thomas Collins strongly expresses his opinion on Accolade business.



Bob Focht gives pointers to Junior members Kim Miller and Bill Gehring.

And an opportunity to develop a chronicle...

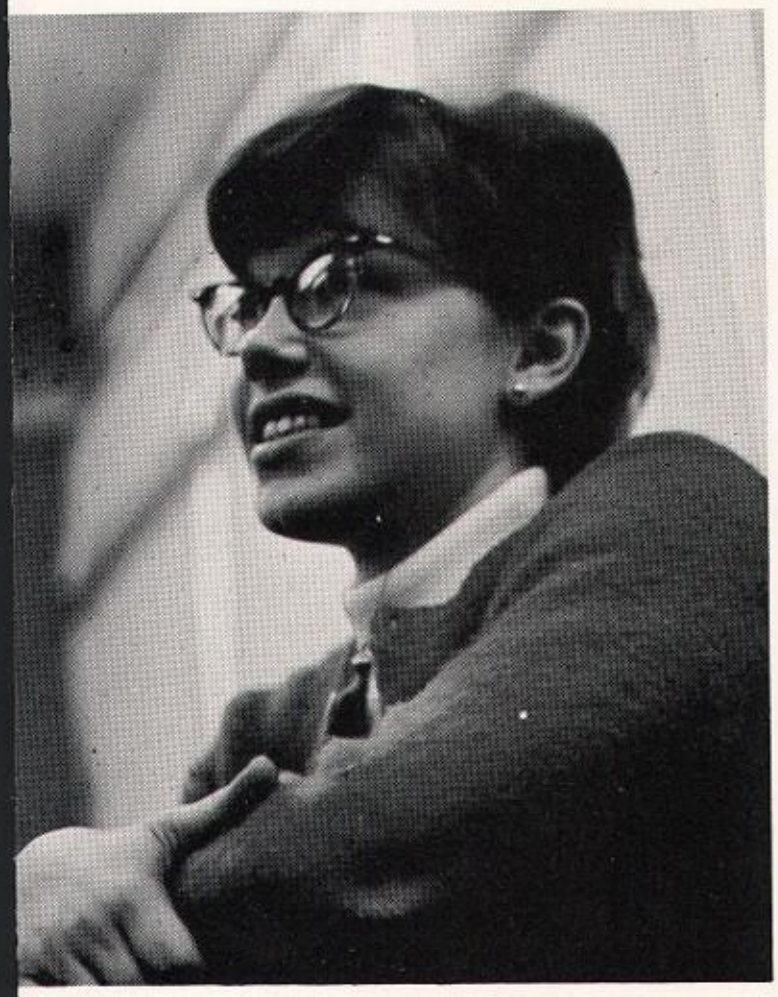
Girls' Sports Editor, Jeanette Czelecz, works intently on her fall sports pages.



Football, baseball, and basketball are part of the responsibility of Randy Cole, Boys' Sports Editor.

Mr. Jacobs assigns pages to be typed to two Accolade Business Staff Members Shirley Wasser and Shirley Bean.

Practicing layouts seems to be an enjoyable task for Ardene Freed.



Our Literary Editor, Evelyn Illingworth, is always a source of ideas.

Warren Helman brings up a problem at an Accolade conference.

Wendy West, Thomas Vizzard and Diane Clymer mail out letters to the advertisers of the KNIGHT CRIER.

KNIGHT CRIER

The Knight Crier swung into action this year directed by advisors Mr. Thomas Vizzard and Mr. David Clarke. A staff of forty-two worked under co-editors Sue Smith and Diane Clymer, gathering news and arranging it into an appealing format. Six issues were published, each containing articles about important school events, interesting personalities and up to date sports, various short stories, and only the latest jokes. They kept the student body abreast of the happenings in and around North Penn High School.

Senior, Sue Smith, and junior, Diane Clymer, co-editors of this year's KNIGHT CRIER are responsible for its success as the main avenue of N.P.H.S. news.

CHOIR

This year the Concert Choir again turned in a commendable performance. Always one of the finest in the area, our choir placed fifteen of its members on the District Choir. The vocal group, under the skillful direction of Mr. Alvin Schmidt, achieved great heights in melodious choristry evidenced by their fine performance at the Christmas and Spring Concerts. In addition, the choir also made a tape recording which was played on WNPV. The smaller and more select of the two choral groups, the vocal ensemble, made appearances at several local functions and other area schools.

The Band

The eighty-piece North Penn High School Band, directed by Mr. Karl A. Thompson, has long been the pride of our school as well as our community. They added color and spirit to pep rallies and football games with their lively numbers and exceptional cheering. They participated in the annual Christmas and Spring Concerts as well as local parades. A smaller dance band performs at home basketball games and other local functions. North Penn's fine showing in the Bux-Mont District and State Bands is evidence of their exceptional talent and ability.

F.T.A.

This year was an extremely busy one for the members of the F.T.A. Under the direction of Mr. Edward Klavon, the group studied the many facets of the teaching profession through lectures and visits to local elementary, specialized and secondary schools. In conjunction with the Student Council, they then put this knowledge to work by way of the North Penn tutoring program. The program was established to aid students who need additional help in their studies. Thus far, 30 students have benefited by this service.

Mrs. Jean Buck,
Advisor

Vistors attending community or school functions at North Penn High are invariably greeted cordially by one of the North Penn Usherettes. This year the young ladies, led by Head Usherette Patsy Swartz offered a new service to the community. After receiving instruction from Mrs. Jean Buck, they assisted in several public and private dinners. It is with grace and charm that the Usherettes performed these and other duties for the school and community as they personified the hospitality of North Penn High.

MAJORETTES

Adding a great deal of color and life to parades, pep rallies, football and home basketball games this year were the North Penn Majorettes, led by Head Majorette, Cindi Usic.

The girls began their practices early in September as they worked all fall and winter in the mornings before school, going over routines many times, while developing near perfection. This extensive practice was quite evident in their lively performances, as they were very well received by the spectators throughout the year.

CHEERLEADERS

Leading the North Penn student body in rousing support of our interscholastic athletic efforts was our dependable cheerleading squad. Under the capable leadership of Captain Suzy King, the squad of eleven girls and four boys worked to generate school spirit and team effort. They provided colorful signs and tags, spirited pep rallies and sock-hops during the fall to give impetus to and meaning for a deep desire for both individual and team effort. This active support was a vital factor in the fine record accomplished by all our teams this year.

For the second consecutive year North Penn's soccer team captured the Bux-Mont League Championship with a nine game winning streak. Fariss Barnes, the second highest scorer in the League, was responsible for nine scores. Five players were selected as representatives on the All Bux-Mont Team. Coach Klavon was highly pleased with his team's accomplishments, but mildly disappointed by his charges' loss in the Districts to Lower Merion, 1-0. FOOTBALL TOUCHDOWN!

The Knights sacrificed their passing attack for a powerful ground game which was matched by a hard-hitting defense. The Big Blue could be counted on to explode with a scoring spurt during any game. An opening victory over Abington and three consecutive league victories indicated a potential champion. Our boys scored by employing the long gainer and the sustained drive throughout the year. However, an upset by Upper Moreland and disappointing four straight losses changed the complexion of an apparently successful season.

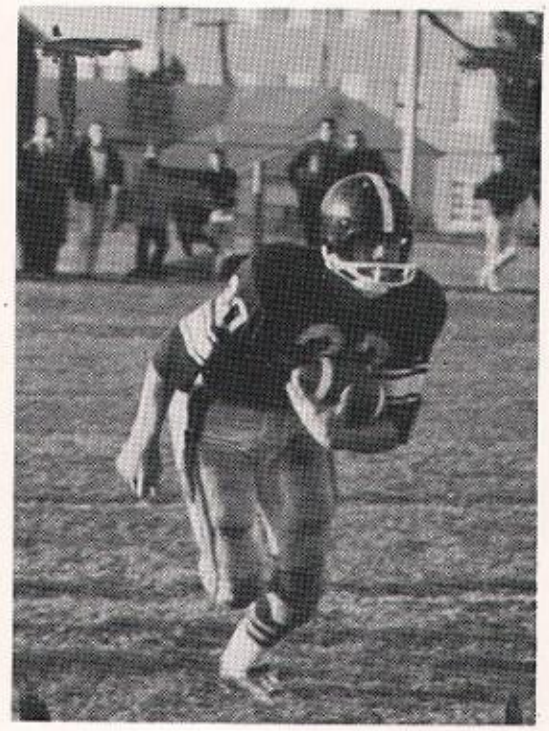
The Knights opened the season with their first victory over Abington in the three year history of the series. The Ghosts scored twice early in the first quarter before junior halfbacks, Don McCourt and John Metz, retaliated. McCourt twice broke through right tackle, reversed his field, and sped for the touchdowns; while Metz scored on the same play late in the quarter. An Abington fumble set up the final tally and ended the Ghosts' reign. North Penn 27 - Abington 25.

North Penn broke the "Spartan Jinx" and rolled over a fired-up Springfield team in the opening game of the Bux-Mont season. The Big Blue drew first blood on a fifty yard jaunt by Don McCourt. After the Spartans tied the score, the Knights broke the game open with four touchdowns. The Spartans scored twice in the final quarter but, the Knight's lead was insurmountable. North Penn 33 - Springfield 20.

Although outplayed in statistics, the Knights defeated Hatboro for their third straight victory. North Penn took advantage of two bad Hatter punts, converting both into scores. Dave Krum connected for the deciding extra points. Hatboro threatened twice during the final minutes, but, a staunch Knight defense and an interception by Greg Lacher ended the Hatter threat. North Penn 14 - Hatboro 13.

A short circuit in Wissahickon's lighting facilities could not stop the Knight attack. The Trojan defense faltered on the first play from scrimmage when John Metz went the distance for his first of three touchdowns. The game turned into a romp during the second half when the Knights returned a kickoff for a score and Tom Beggs completed his first touchdown pass of the season. North Penn 36 - Wissahickon 19.

Due to numerous injuries and four fumbles at crucial moments, the Knights ended their winning streak against the Golden Bears of Upper Moreland. Heavily favored North Penn managed only one touchdown en route to their first defeat. Upper Moreland took an early lead, but the Knights retaliated with a touchdown drive, highlighted by a 40 yd. pass to end, Wayne Bean. A safety during the final minutes of the game sealed the Knights' downfall. North Penn 7 - Upper Moreland 9.



I Halfback Don McCourt returns kickoff.

The Knights' big forward line and an improved pass defense held the Quakers' passing attack to virtually nothing. The Quakers controlled the ball most of the game, but the Knight defense came through to stop two desperate Quaker touchdown drives in the final quarter. Heads-up defense set up both touchdowns for the Blueclads. North Penn 13 - Quakertown 6.

The senior members of 1964 football squad:

Injuries mounted during a seesaw battle with Souderton. Most of the starting eleven were either out or not performing at full capacity because of injuries received in former games. The Knights moved with authority in the first half but fumbles and interceptions during the second half cost the Knights three touchdowns. The Knights retaliated with a touchdown but it was not enough to overcome the Indians. North Penn 19 - Souderton 33.

Despite the two touchdowns scored by linemen Erv Jaros and Paul McGuigan, North Penn lost the Homecoming game to Upper Perkiomen. The Knights were able to control the ball on the ground but the Indians' timely passing was responsible for their victory. North Penn 13 - Upper Perkiomen 20.

The Big Blue greeted undefeated Pennridge with an unbalanced line which troubled the Ram defense. The two powerful teams moved well, but neither could get a decisive lead. The Knights scored first and last, but three Ram touchdowns could not be overcome. North Penn 13 - Pennridge 20.

A Central Bucks' extra point conversion provided the margin of victory over host North Penn in their fortieth Thanksgiving Day Game. In spite of the Knights' best ground game of the season, they lost their fourth straight. North Penn 6 - Central Bucks 7.

Most Meets Ended This Way -

Coach Gulick

The Harriers finished another perfect league season and continued their perrenial domination of the Bux-Mont League. Training and determination netted a first place in the Bux-Mont's on a two mile course at Indian Valley. In every meet, brothers Ron and Dave Rissmiller, and Ray Brommer could be seen in the front of the pack, battling for the number one position. A first place in the William Tennent Invitation, a second in the Districts, and a third in the States concluded a pennant season for the Harriers.

Next comes the balance of the North Penn squad as usual followed by the opposing team.

MAIDENS IN ACTION

Strong determination and high hopes marked the beginning of the 1964 Bux-Mont Hockey Season for the Maidens. Undaunted by their two opening losses, the Maidens, guided by Coaches Lynn Moyer and Carol Bentley, came back to win their next three games. This three game winning streak was broken when Souderton, scoring in the last minutes of the game, dealt the Maidens a heart-breaking 1-0 loss. Although the losing of their next two games gave them a sixth place finish, the Maidens, with their spirit and enthusiasm, were a team any school could be proud of.

Coach Klavon

This year bigger crowds than ever swarmed to see North Penn's grueling individual competitive sport--Wrestling. Despite pre-season losses to Woodrow Wilson and Neshaminy, the Grapplers swept all league matches. In most matches North Penn's light-weight classes built up an overwhelming lead which could not be matched by the opposing team's heavier classes. Co-captain Fred Henson and Dennis Gerhart usually provided the necessary points for a team victory. Undefeated, South-Eastern Regional, District I, Section III, and potential State Champ, Bob Hallman led the team with 15 pins. Junior John Oates made Section III, but was eliminated in the Districts.

NORTH PENN FINISHES AS TOP SCORER

The high scoring Knights could not be stopped offensively, but an inadequate defense hindered their game. A preseason win over Upper Dublin plus five victories with only one defeat set the Knights in a tie for first place. Then came a momentary halt to their winning ways. The Knights slipped from a share of first to sixth place. Upsets by Quakertown and Central Bucks ended their hope for a championship. However, victories over Upper Moreland and Springfield salvaged a tie for fifth place. The Knights possessed the biggest three-man scoring punch in the league with Greg Smith, who finished second in total scoring, Bob McGuire, and Jeff Hock.

Following their non-league opening loss to perennially powerful Abington, the Maidens also dropped their next two games. Under the direction of Coaches Dorthea Ball and Carol Bentley, they came back and won the following two - one by a lop-sided score of 42-8. TRACK TEAM TRIES FOR ANOTHER

Again North Penn is favored to win the Bux-Mont crown. Although the Knights are not as strong in the dashes as in former years, a powerful field squad and determined distance runners will insure North Penn of every victory. Trackmen like: Erv Jaros (Shot put, discus, and triple jump), Ron Rissmiller (Javelin, miler, and 120 yd. low hurdles), and Bob Jernigan (hurdles and broad jump) are capable of winning all their events and of building a commanding lead in every meet. Right-fielder Sue Roelofs intently watches a close play at home plate.

Debbie Delp snags another one.

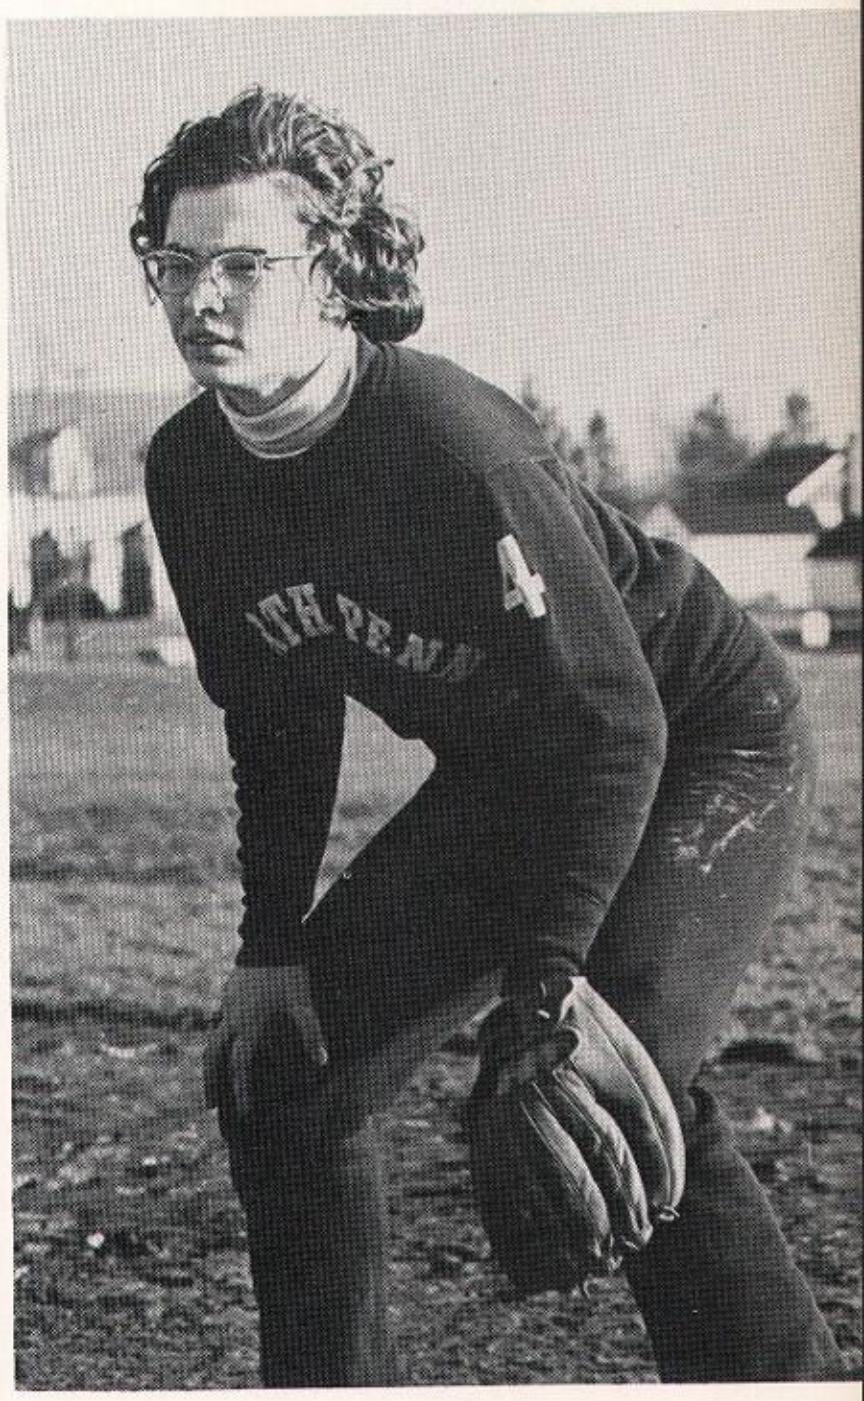
Linda Wheelin at the bucket.

Coach Carol Bentley . . . "Ready outfield?"

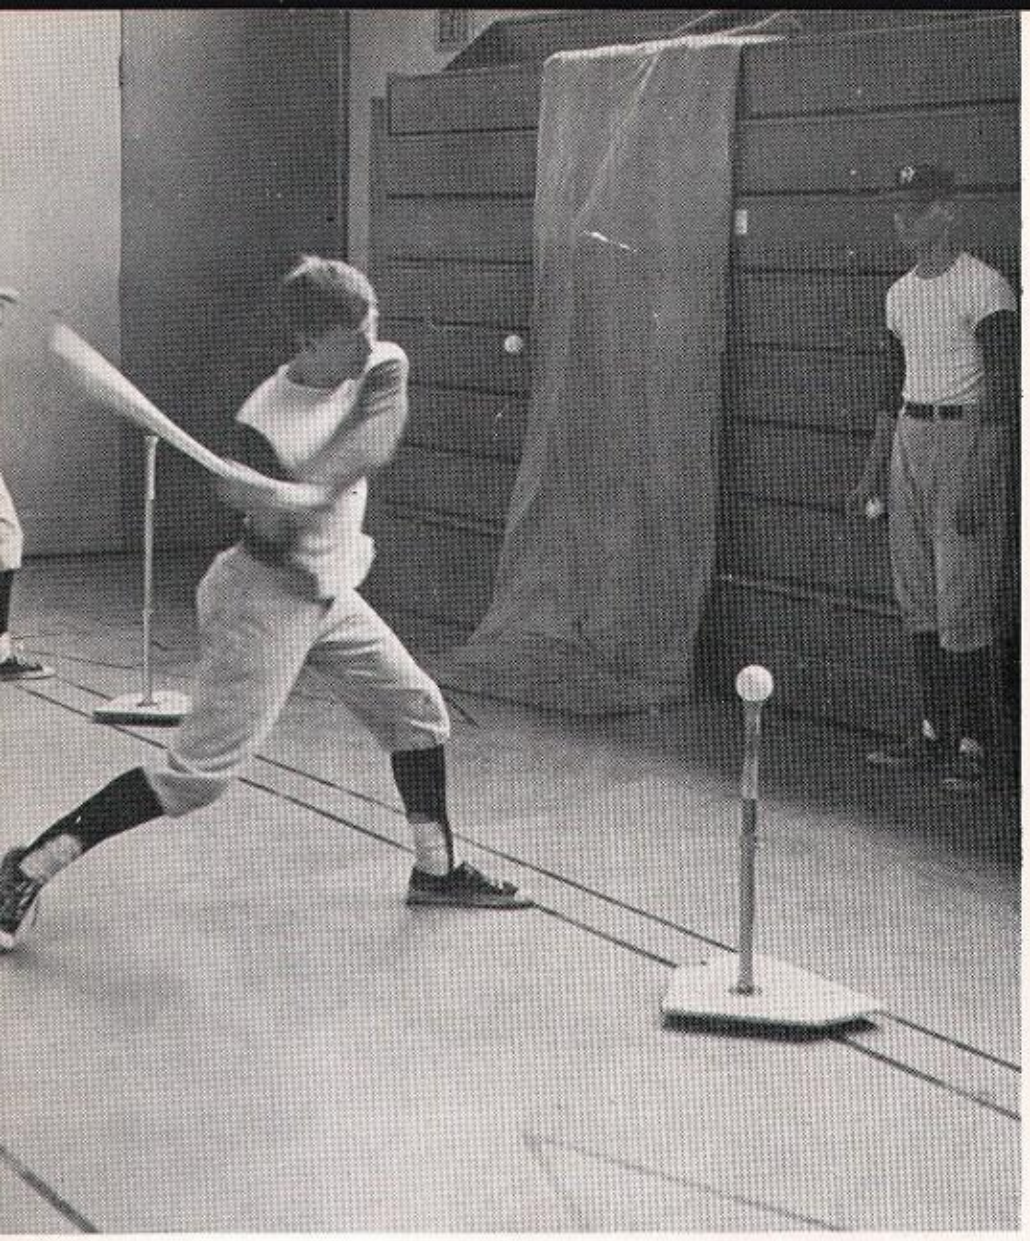
Pitcher Sharon Kulp winds up to throw another strike across the plate.

SOFTBALL

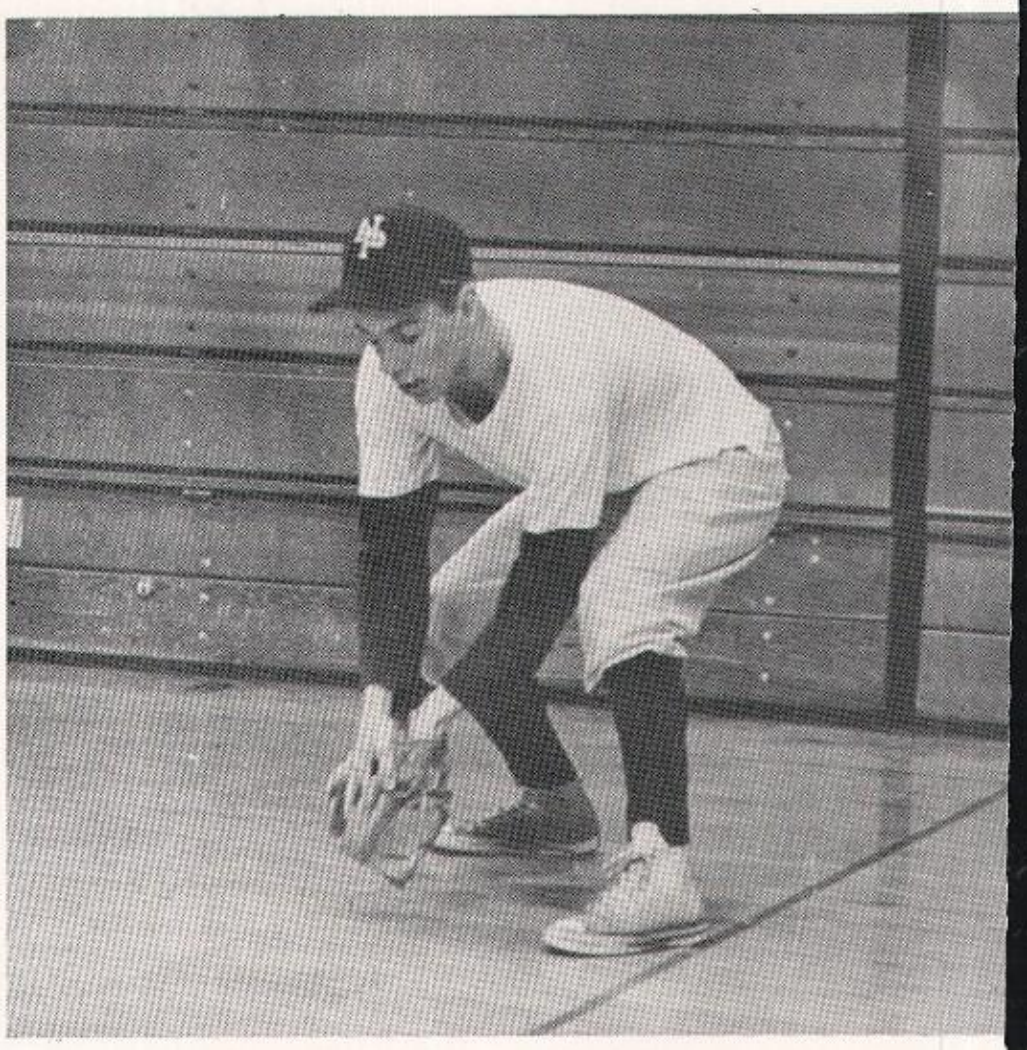
With four returning lettermen and a promising group of juniors, the girls' softball team, under the direction of Coach Carol Bentley, hopes to be a successful contender for the 1965 championship. Many long hours of practice have gone into their preparation for league competition, which opens with a home game with Quakertown.



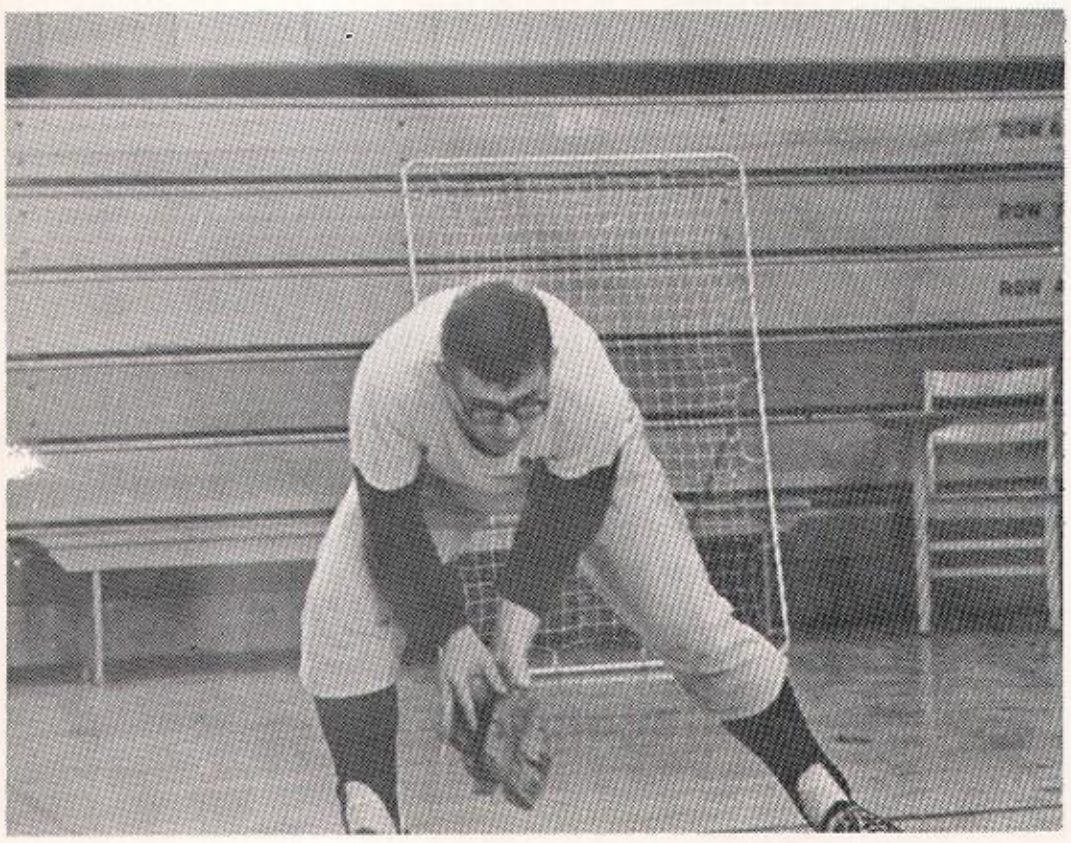
Linda Sue Krieble stands in a crouched position ready to 'pocket' any ball that comes her way.



Outfielder Ken Slotter practices his follow-through during indoor workout.



Infielder Fariss Barnes waits for grounder.



Jim Raudenbush follows flight of ball.

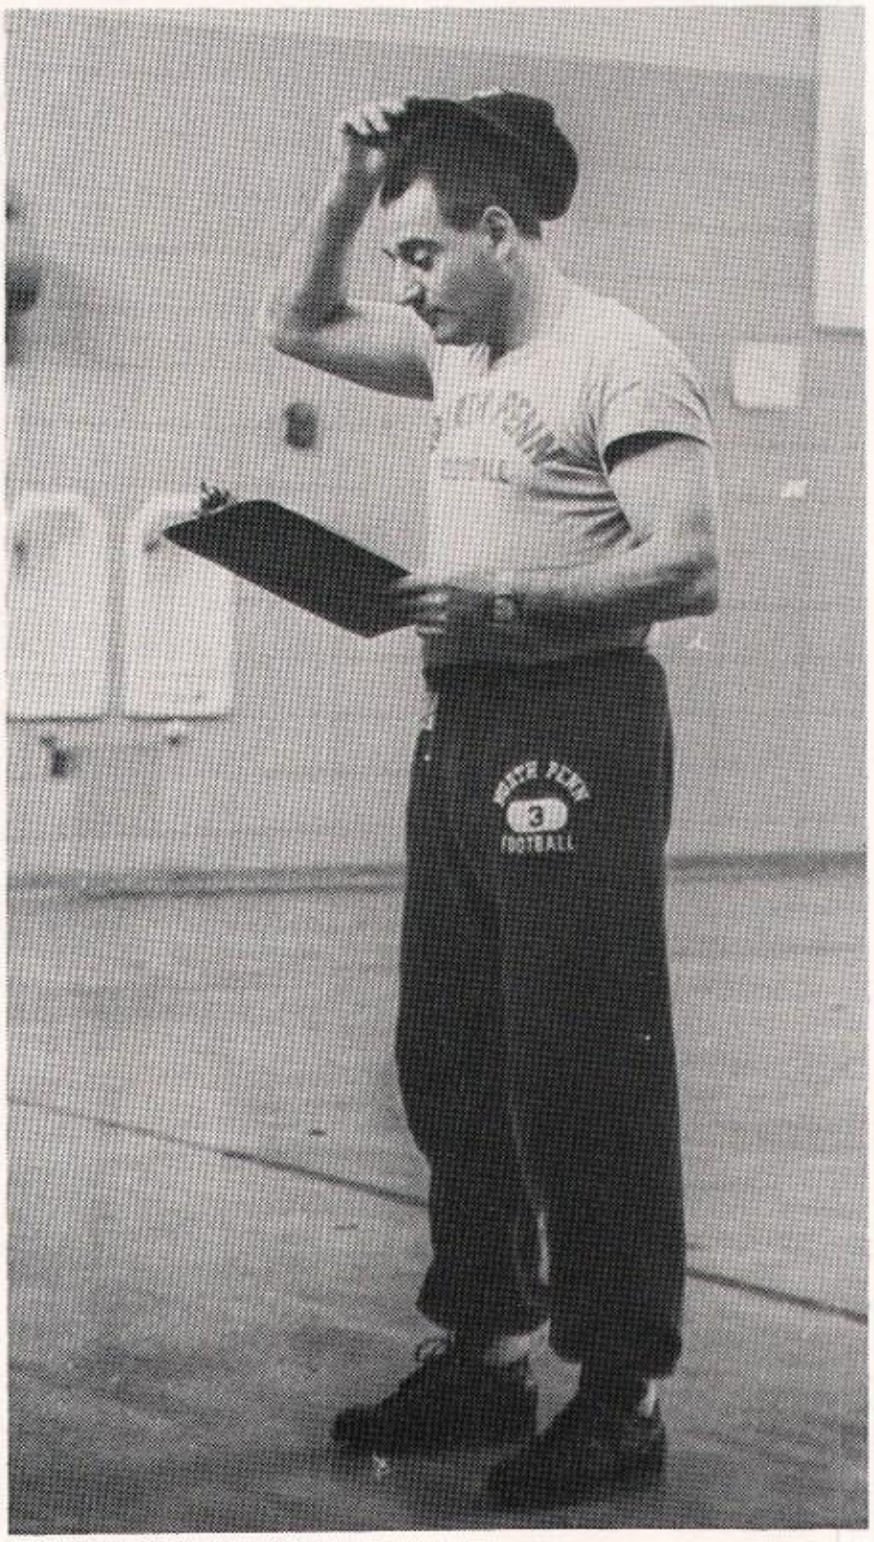
BASEBALL TEAM BIDS FOR FIFTH CHAMPIONSHIP

Although this year there is no outstanding single player, the baseball team is again picked to win the championship for the fifth consecutive year. Returning lettermen Jim Raudenbush, Jim Rittenhouse, Ken Slotter, and Bob Hager provide the needed experience; while juniors Jeff Brittin, Dave Walton, Jim Bishop, and Pete Baldwin round out the first team. A combination of team play plus an outstanding performance by the pitching staff will insure North Penn a championship.

Pitcher Jim Rittenhouse warms up for starting assignment.

Fariss Barnes receives first-hand instructions from the coach.



Coach Giuranna seems a bit perplexed while deciding on practice schedule.

Hopeful Anticipation of a Victory

The Queen, Karen Kehler, flanked by her escort, Mitch Hanna, and Student Council President, Don Lewis.

. . . A PART OF US.

A capacity crowd attended the fourth annual Homecoming game on November 7. Upper Perk walked away with the victory, but a bright day and crisp temperature kept everyone alert. During the half-time activities the Homecoming Queen, Karen Kehler, was crowned by Don Lewis, President of Student Council. Included in Karen's court were Mary Chambers, Ellen Dando, Suzy King, and Ginny Williams. That evening the festivities included dancing to "Autumn Leaves" and the presentation of the Queen and her court. The music was provided by the West Chester Statesmen.

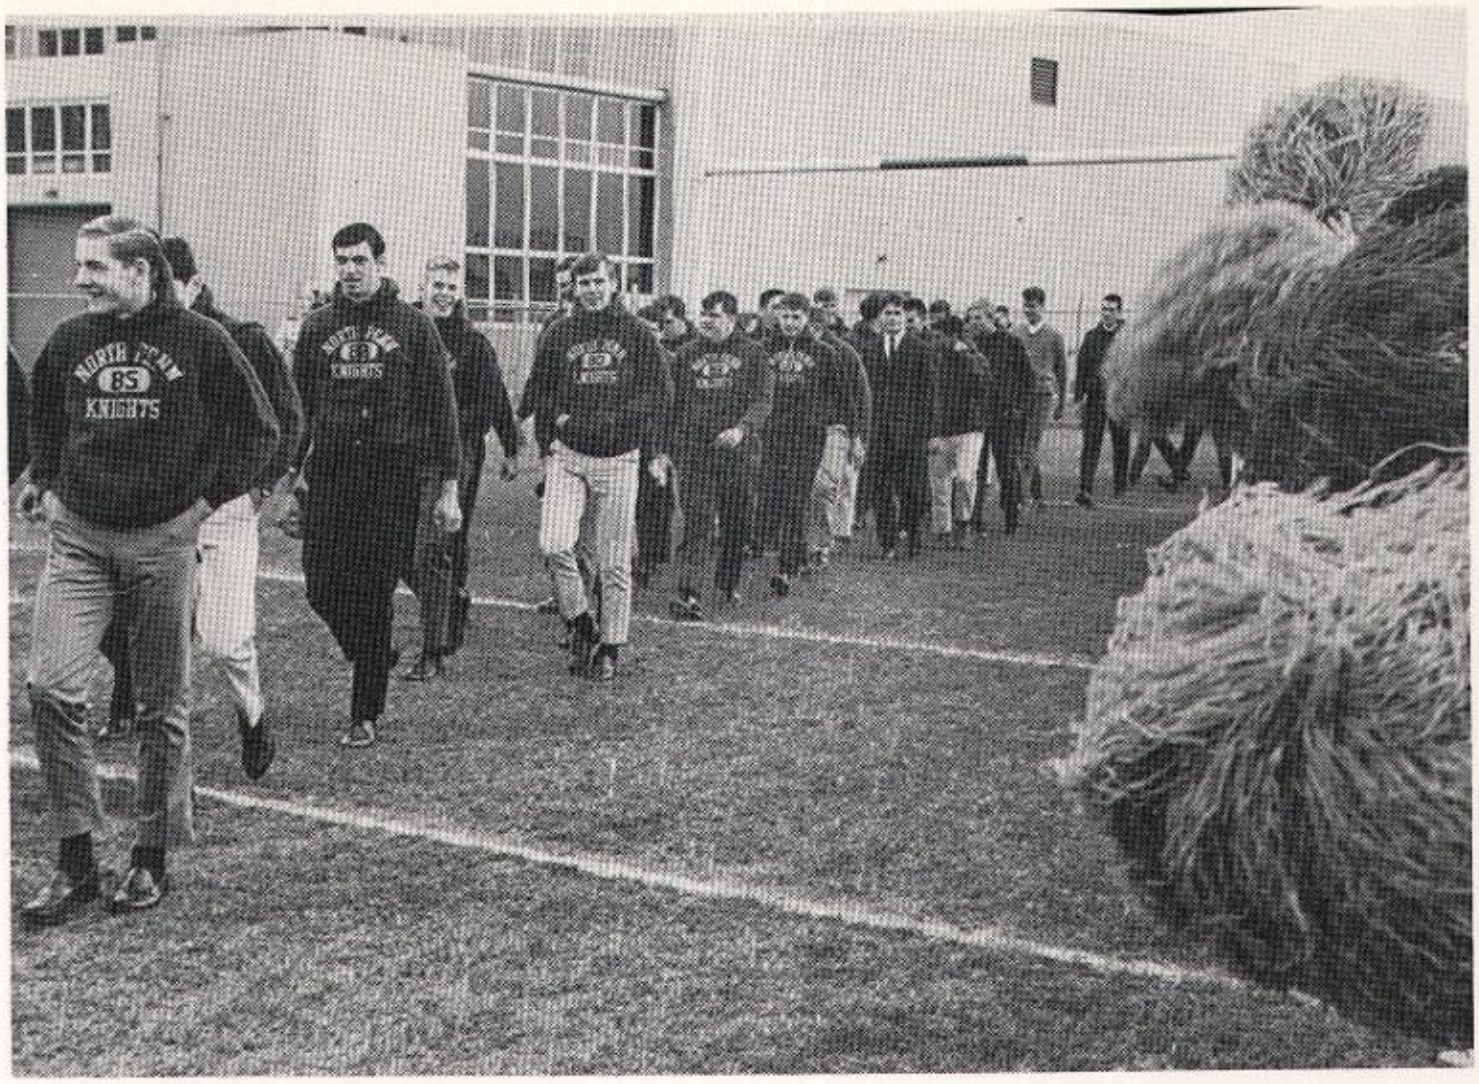
Many kinds of feet also make up a pep rally.



The football team walks onto the field to "Oh when the Knights go marching in."

"Let's have one big fight."

Enthusiasm, pep, and pride of the student body stimulated our athletic teams to exert themselves with an extra effort for victory. The outdoor setting of the first pep rallies stimulated interest that continued throughout North Penn High School's sports schedule.

SENIOR DANCE ...

WHERE A KNOWING HEART REALIZES IT WILL NOT BE HERE AGAIN.

A North Penn senior class version of a "Hootenany" was the theme of the Harvest Hayride Dance on November 27. Jackie Bricker and Rosey Ross lent their vocal talents to complement the music of the Avalons.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT ...

The spirit of Christmas was again vividly expressed by the fine musical talents of North Penn High School's choir and Concert band. This year Pennbrook's mixed chorus and Pennfield's girls' chorus were participants in the annual P.T.A. Christmas Concert.

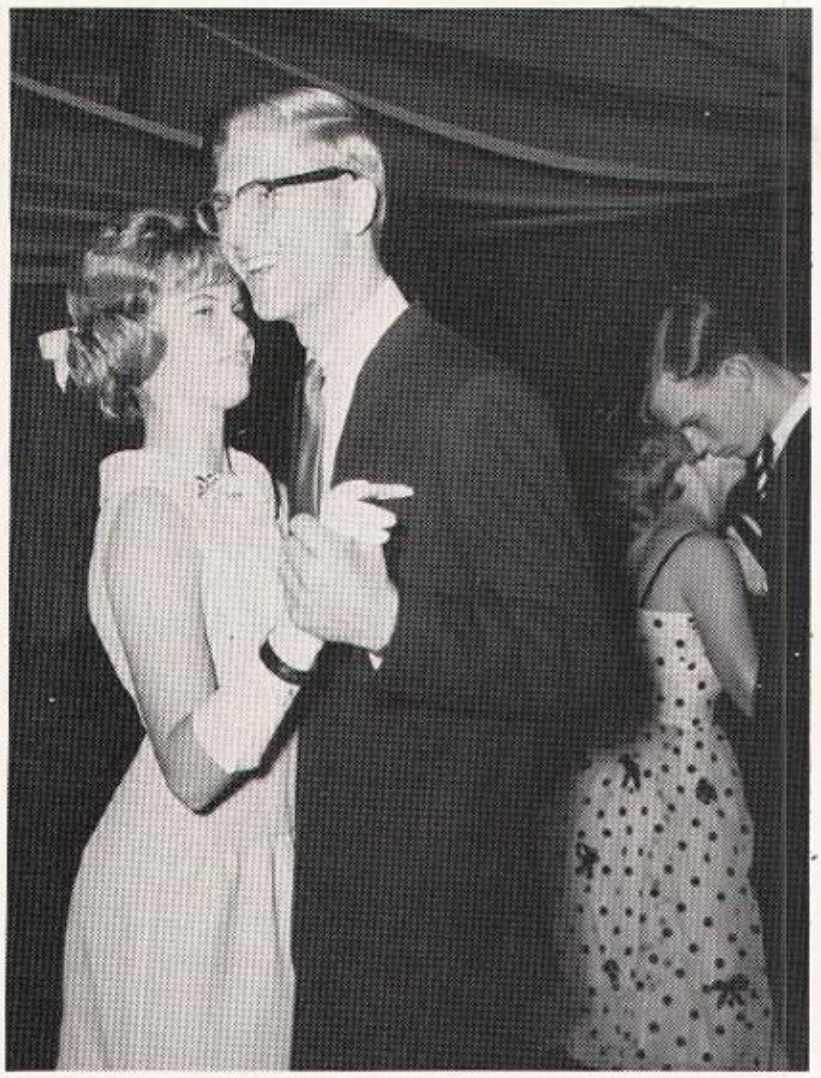
JUNIOR MISS ...



WHERE THE HEART BECOMES EAGERLY ANXIOUS FOR A CERTAIN BOY TO ASK.

On December 30, 1964, the class of '65 presented the annual Junior Miss Dance. Last year's Junior Miss, Karen Kehler, crowned the new Junior Miss, Janet Smith. In Janet's court were Wendy Fuss, Nancy Jones, Connie Landis, and Sandy MacArthur. The theme of this year's occasion was "Winter Fantasy" complemented by Gene Kendall and his orchestra.

STUDENT COUNCIL ASSEMBLY . . .

This year the Student Council went variety, a departure from previous years, by presenting an assortment of musical abilities and skits on December 4th. Highlighting the performance by thirty people was Bill Ciminera singing "Summertime" with Jackie Bricker accompanying. Many acts from this assembly were chosen to represent North Penn in subsequent exchange assemblies.

SENIOR ASSEMBLY . . . WHERE HEARTS WERE NOT

Dead bodies and old maids equaled "Arsenic and Old Lace" which was presented by North Penn High School's senior class. Under the direction of Vince Diehl and Joe Chvok members of the class of '65 gave a superior performance.

This year Student Council created a novel approach for making money by having a Tag Day and Revenge Day. If a girl tagged a boy on January 29, he was required to carry her books from class to class for the entire day. On March 5 the boys got their revenge. With the cooperation of the teachers and the student body Tag Day and Revenge Day were very successful.

KNOWLEDGE IS PROUD THAT HE HAS

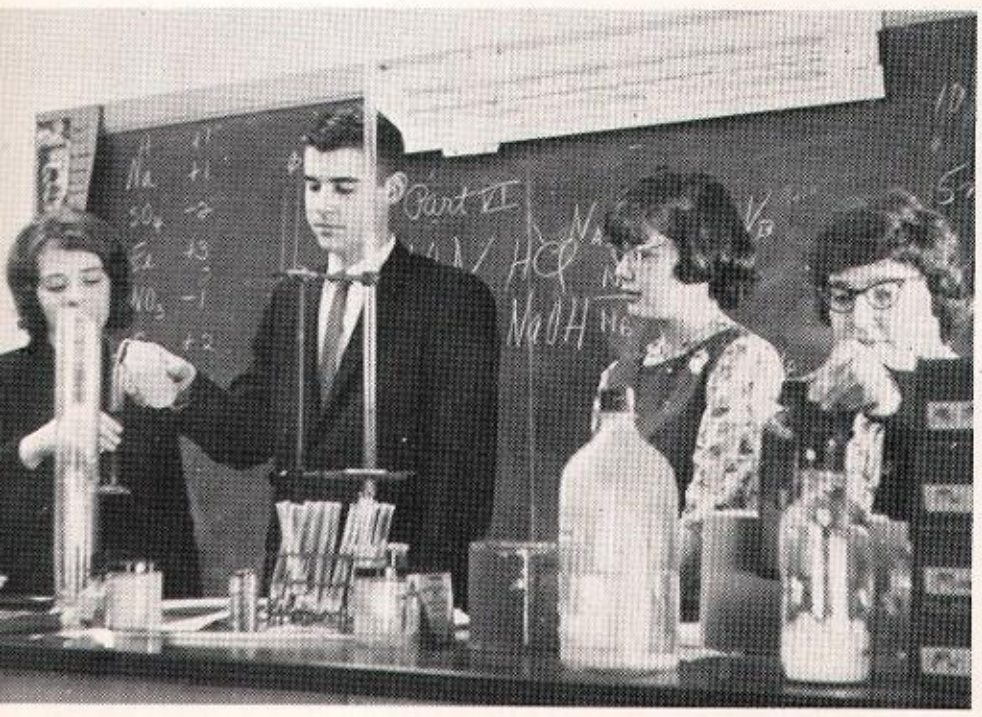
THAT HE KNOWS NO MORE.

W. COWPER



Susan Danehower, William Weil, Nancy Bobb, Ardeen Freed

AND HERE THERE IS PRIDE...

A PRIDE IN WHAT WE WERE WHEN WE ENTERED HERE AND IN WHAT WE ARE AS WE LEAVE NOW.

IT IS BECAUSE WE HAVE DONE SO MANY THINGS OF WHICH WE ARE PROUD WE WOULD LIKE TO REVIEW THEM NOW IN RETROSPECT

From the beginning we recognized in him the qualities for which we searched.

And he was here and we elected him to guide us.

And he did.

He guided not only Tom Beggs, our class President, but also the other officers of the Sophomore Class

Fariss Barnes,
Vice President

Linda Cooper, Secretary

Karen Anderson, Treasurer

and the steering committee.

They planned our first major activity as an organized class--

the Sophomore dance

The hours of decorating with red, pink,
and white hearts
was climaxed with the crowning of the King and Queen of Heart's Delight...

Kathy Ziegler and Tom Beggs

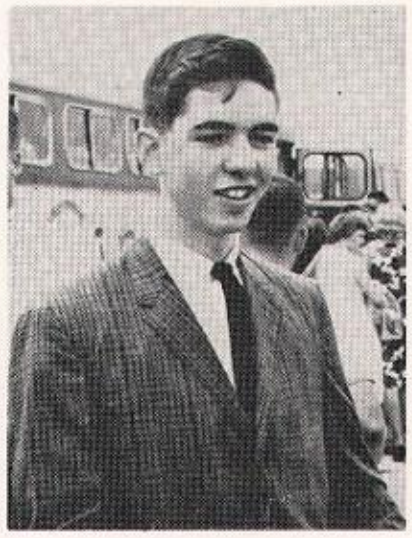
Within a few weeks Ginny Williams and Ron Young were selected to become the next year's exchange students.



And we said good-by to them in early August.

We returned to school in the fall of '63 and immediately elected new class officers

Don Lewis became President, Suzy King, Vice-President,

Rosey Ross, Secretary, and Kathy Ziegler, Treasurer.

And they served us well in presenting the Junior Miss featuring Karen Kehler.

The talents in our class were assembled and our first stage success was produced -"East Side Story"

And again we anxiously awaited the selection of exchange students.

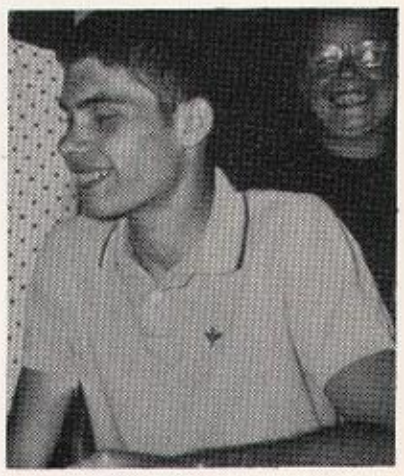
At last we learned that

Sandy Baumgartner

and Judy Hoffman

would represent us in Germany.

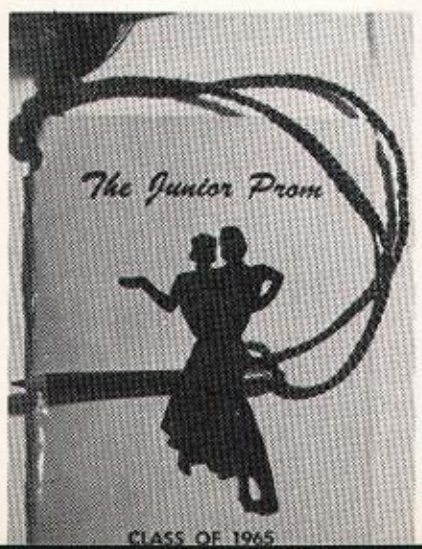
We also heard that



Allen Kratz was going to France in a two-way exchange.

Later, the Student Council elections brought the swirl of campaigns and the election of Don Lewis as President.

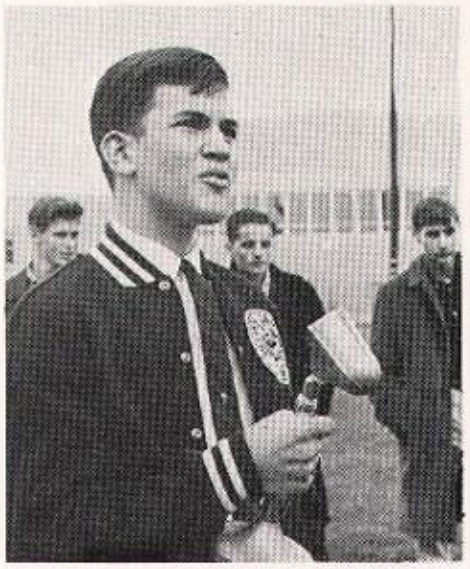
Soon enough the climax of that year, the Junior Prom, was upon us.



Little did we realize that we were only months away from those final days.

And then we were Seniors...

With us were the new faces of Mike, Renate, Rembert, and Alain who were to be an integral part of our school family.



Don Lewis assumed his position as Student Council President.

Simultaneously, the new class officers Suzy King, Vice President, Warren Helman, Treasurer, Kevin Eckert, President Karen Kehler, Secretary, and had their first meeting with the steering committee to formulate plans for the Thanksgiving dance - "Harvest Hayride."

Homecoming was a successful activity as can be attested to by the smile on Karen Kehler's face as she reigned as Homecoming Queen.

Kathy Ringham and Bill James talk seriously in the Senior Assembly "Arsenic and Old Lace."

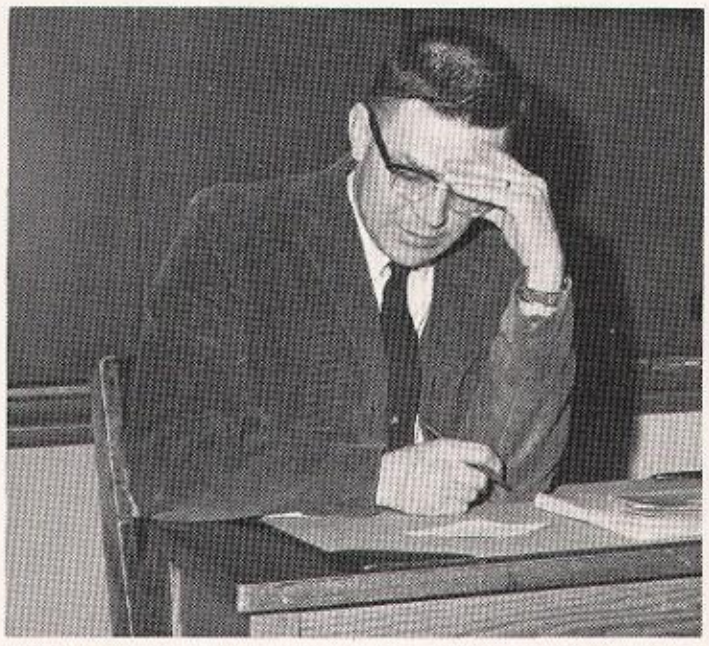
And then the anticipation began. We passed the anxiety before and the freedom after the final examination. The Senior Prom was an experience of fascination while Class Night became a moment we cherished as a group for the last time. And as we looked forward to graduation, we felt an ecstacy for donning the cap and gown and hearing our name called to receive the long sought-after diploma.

And So We Go Our Separate Ways Amidst A Few Tears - A Few Cheers, Never Relinquishing The Common Base Which We Have Shared.

AND THE MASTER OF THIS

HUMILITY IS, OUR CLASS ADVISOR,

MR. EDWARD KLAVON.



HE EMINATES THE QUALITIES OF

SINCERITY,

FAIRNESS,

DEDICATION,

AND LOYALTY.

BECAUSE HE HAS HELPED THE CLASS OF '65 SO MANY TIMES
AND IN SO MANY WAYS, WE WISH TO HONOR HIM HERE.

THERE IS NO ONE MORE DESERVING.

WHO'S WHO

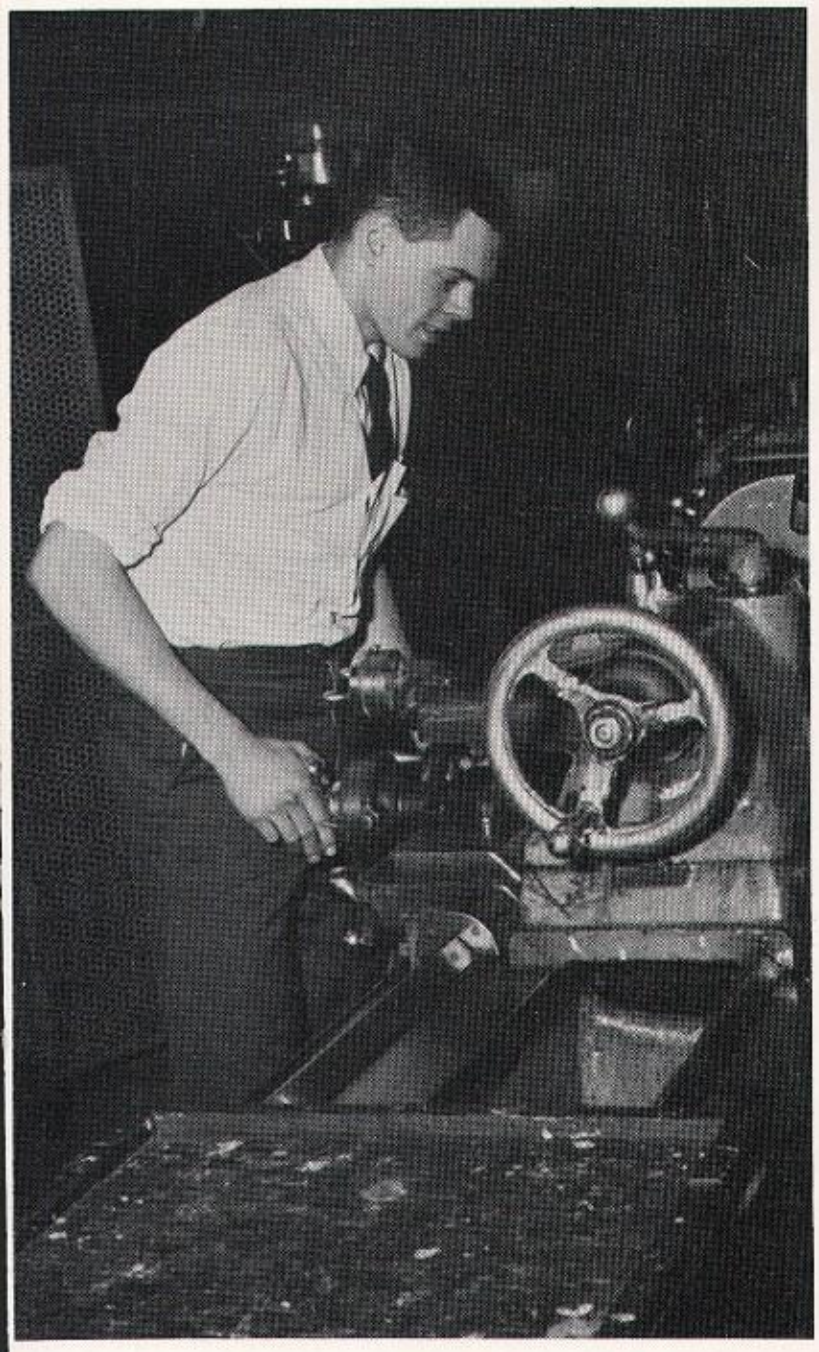
JUDY SCHEID and DON LEWIS have proved themselves to be IDEAL ACADEMIC STUDENTS through their scholastic achievements.

Charming manners and sincere consideration have been displayed by HELEN BYWATERS and BILL BARTHOLOMEW to make them the MOST COURTEOUS.

AND HERE THERE IS HUMILITY...

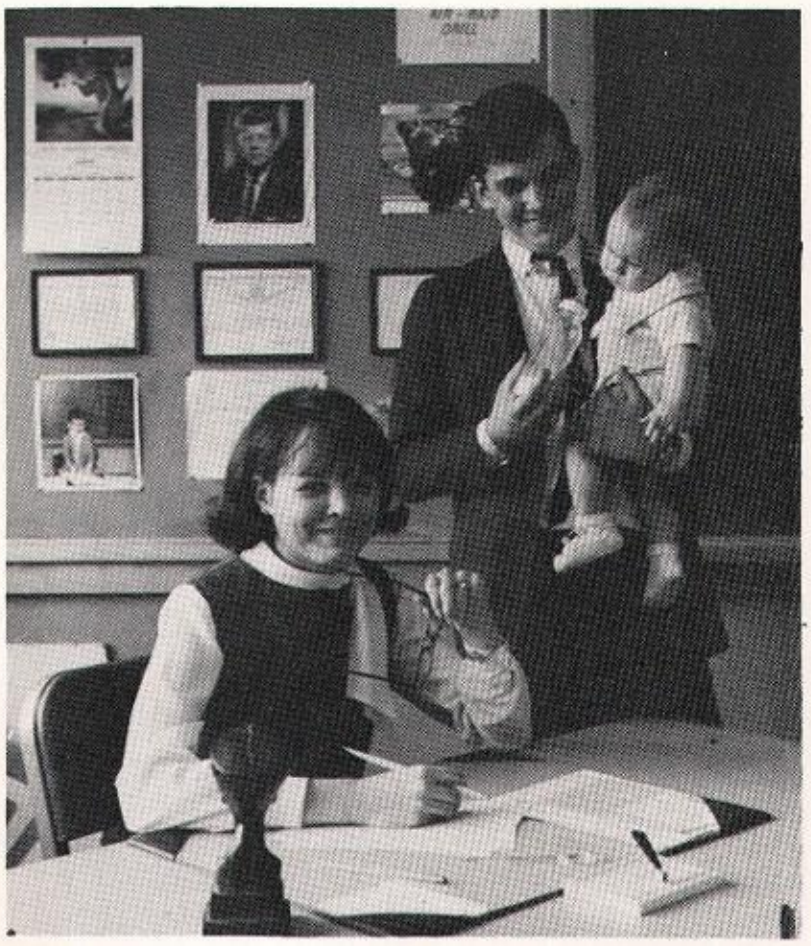
AS A CLASS WE HAVE CHOSEN YOU BECAUSE YOU EXCEL IN SOME AREA OF STUDENT ACTIVITY OR ATTITUDE.

"Go Knights" is the theme of SUZY KING and DENNY GERHART, the two with the MOST SCHOOL SPIRIT at North Penn events.

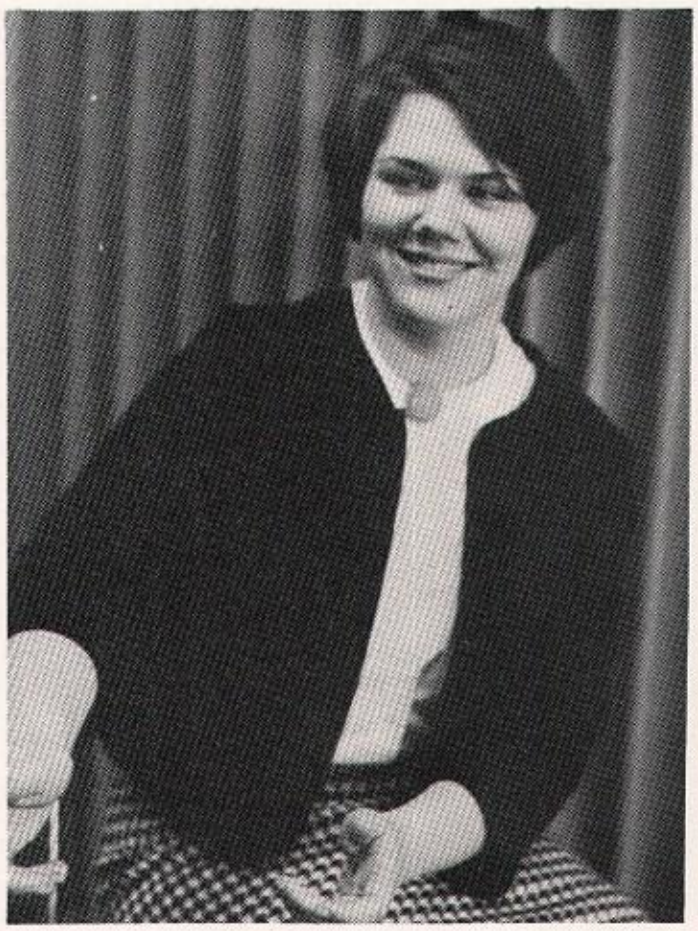


Hard work and steady production is evident in DAVE RISSMILLER, the IDEAL SHOP STUDENT.

Excelling in physical fitness and sportsmanship are SUE ROELOFS and ERV JAROS, the MOST ATHLETIC.



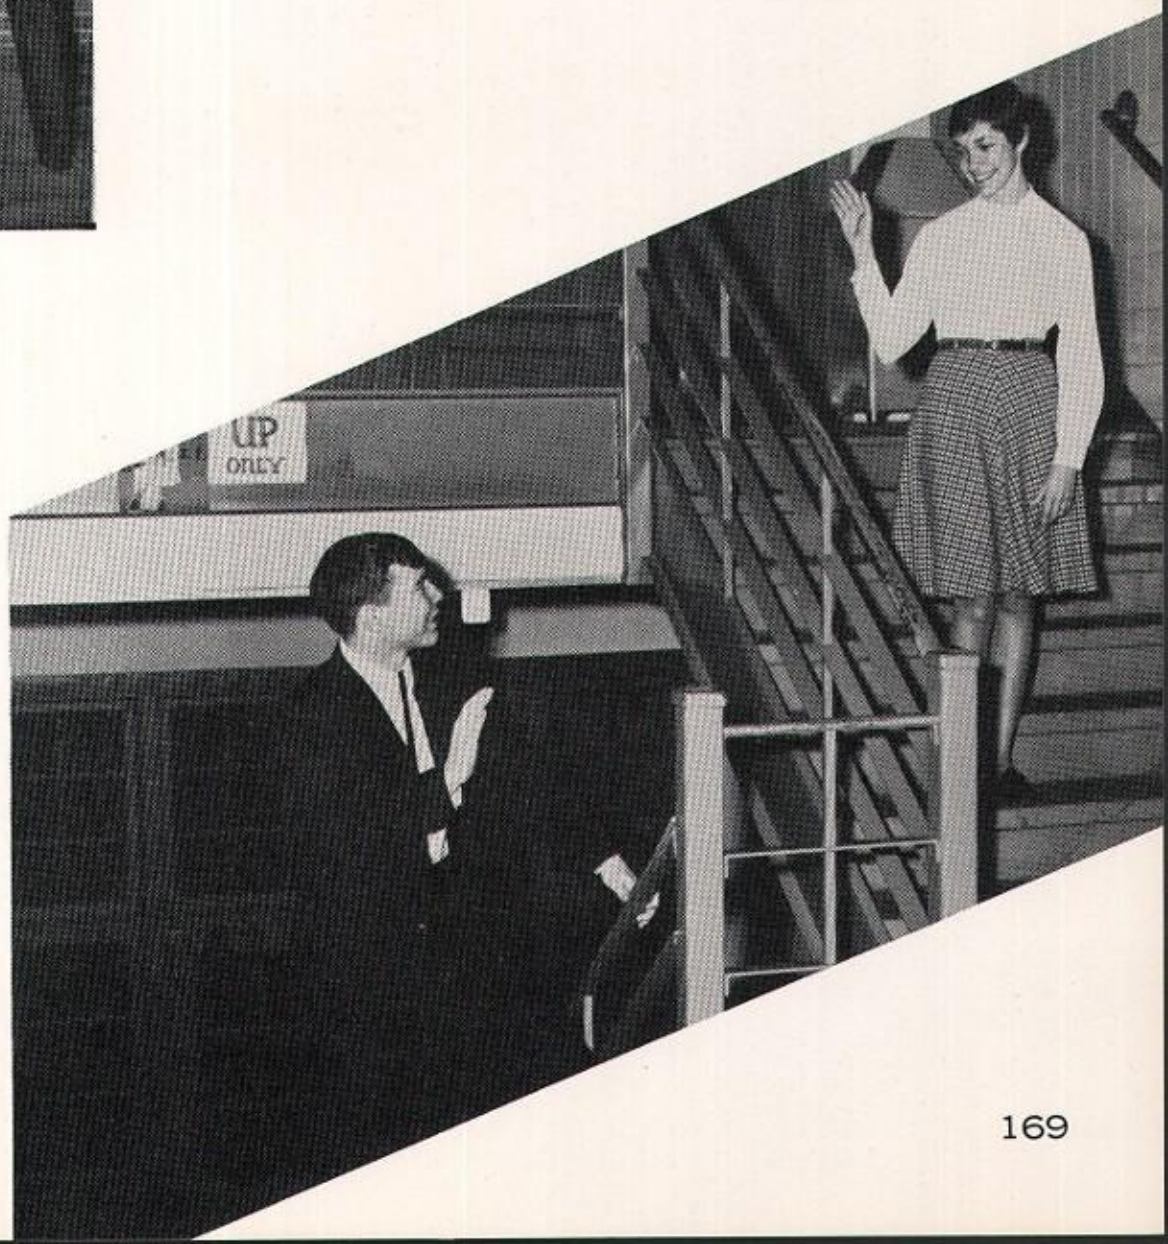
The future has been predicted to be bright for the MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED couple GINNY WILLIAMS and DON LEWIS.



Whenever there is something to be done, the MOST DEPENDABLE SANDY BERGEY and FARISS BARNES can be counted on.

ROSEY ROSS and WARREN HELMAN, always neatly attired, are the BEST DRESSED.

A cheery "Hi" for all can be expected from this year's FRIENDLIEST pair, KAREN KEHLER and DAN HARVEY.



KATHY ZIEGLER and ED REINBOLD were voted as NON-CONFORMIST.

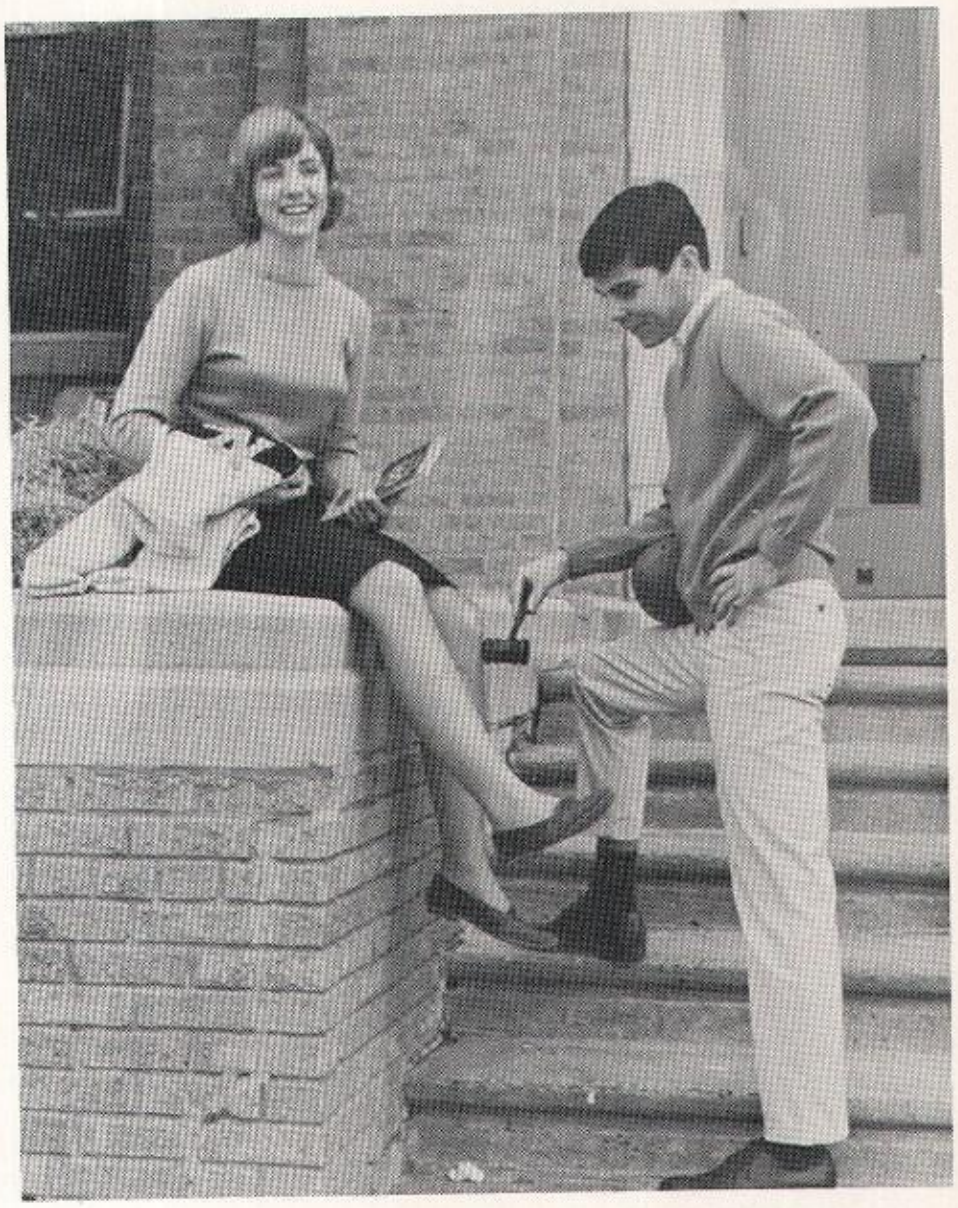
Sketching, photography, and sculpturing are only a few of the talents that make DEBBIE McCABE and DICK REINER the MOST ARTISTIC.

The WITTIEST, ETHEL BUTLER and RICK WEAVER have a sense of humor delightful to all who know them.

Good work, neatness, dexterity, and pleasant personality combine to make IDEAL BUSINESS STUDENTS of KAREN KEHLER and RON RISSMILLER.

DIANNE DRISSEL and DICK MORRIS, the MOST MUSICAL, blend harmony and rhythm with other members of the choir and band.

Busy in school activities from spirit to leadership are the MOST VERSATILE, SUZY KING and KEVIN ECKERT.



REPRESENT US WELL IN THE CATEGORY IN WHICH YOU HAVE BEEN OUTSTANDING: BUT MORE IMPORTANT, REPRESENT US IN THE CATEGORY IN WHICH OUR CLASS HAS BEEN OUTSTANDING... HUMILITY.

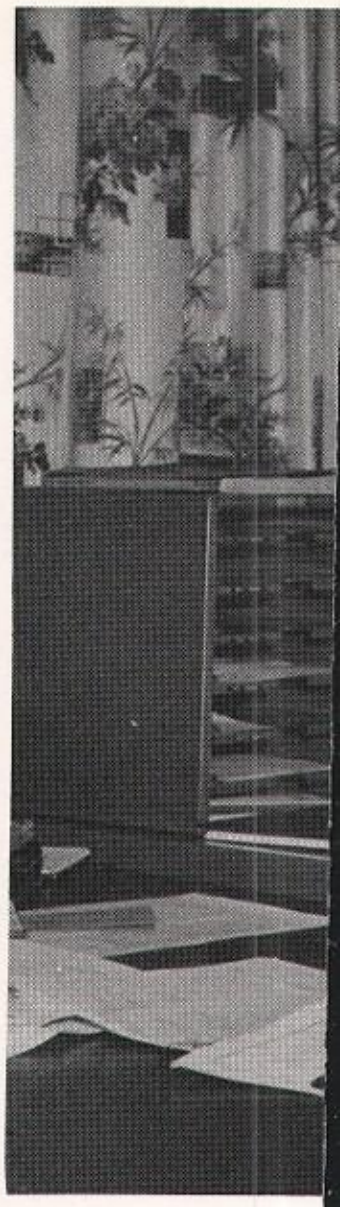
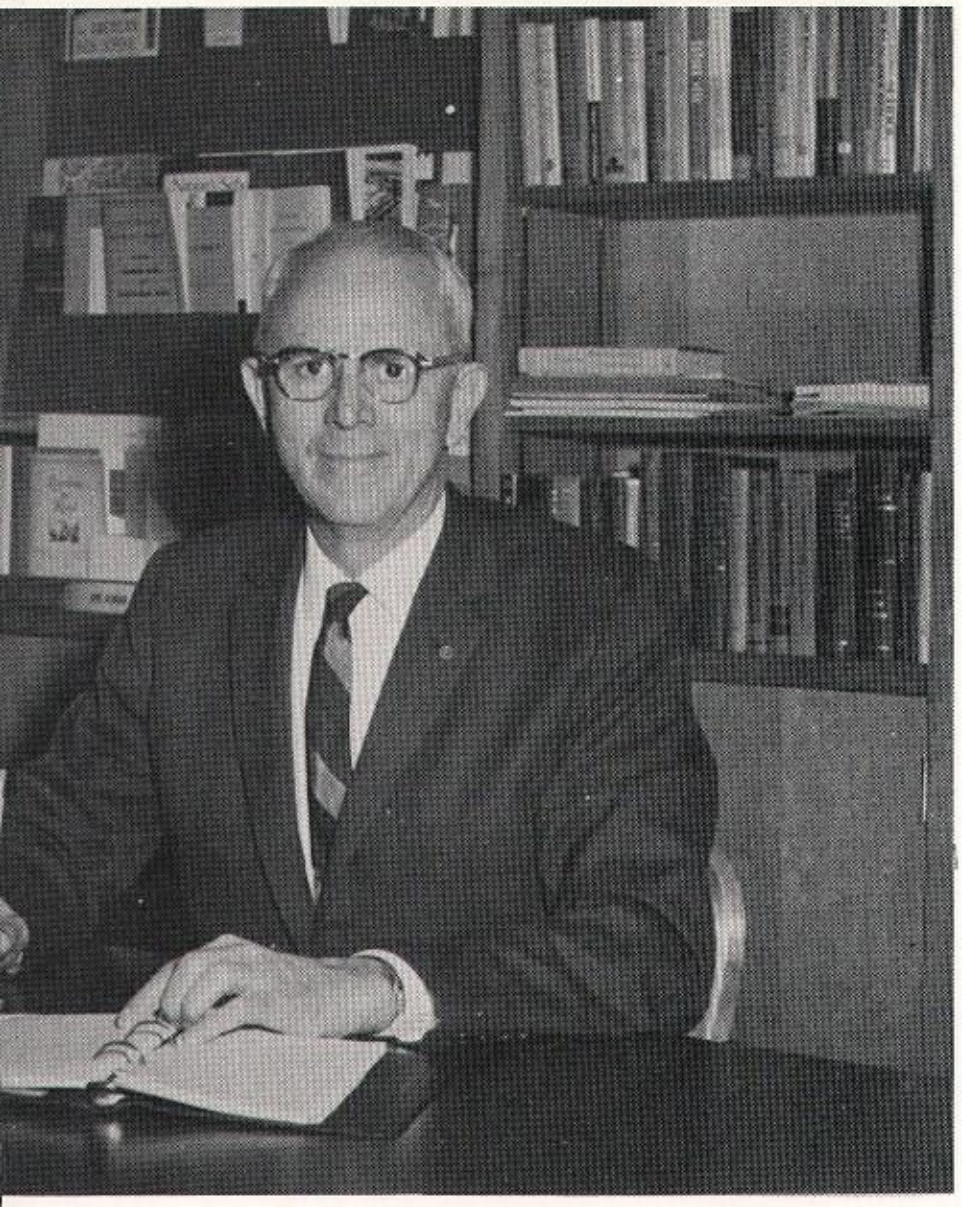
SCHOOL BOARD

One man from each of North Penn's eight school districts plus the Recording Secretary and Supervising Principal compose the School Board. The Board has the responsibility of seeing that the school is properly run by improving school programs and increasing efficiency in the program.



Standing: Dr. A. Kurtz King, Supervising Principal; Dr. Wm. Aufder Hyde, Montgomery Twp.; Abram Ruth, Line Lexington; John Jensen, North Wales; Roy Myers, Hatfield Twp. Sitting: John Weierman, Hatfield Borough; Wilford Staley III, Towamencin Twp.; Byron Reading, Lansdale Borough; James Willliams, Secretary; Abraham Roth, Upper Gwynedd.



Dr. A. Kurtz King, Supervising Principal of the North Penn Jointure, is the administrative chief of the North Penn area's educational system at the junior and senior high levels. He works with the school board to formulate and implement school policies.

ADMINISTRATION

As Principal, Walton Landes has many diversified duties. He supervises classroom procedures and acts as official public representative of N.P.H.S.

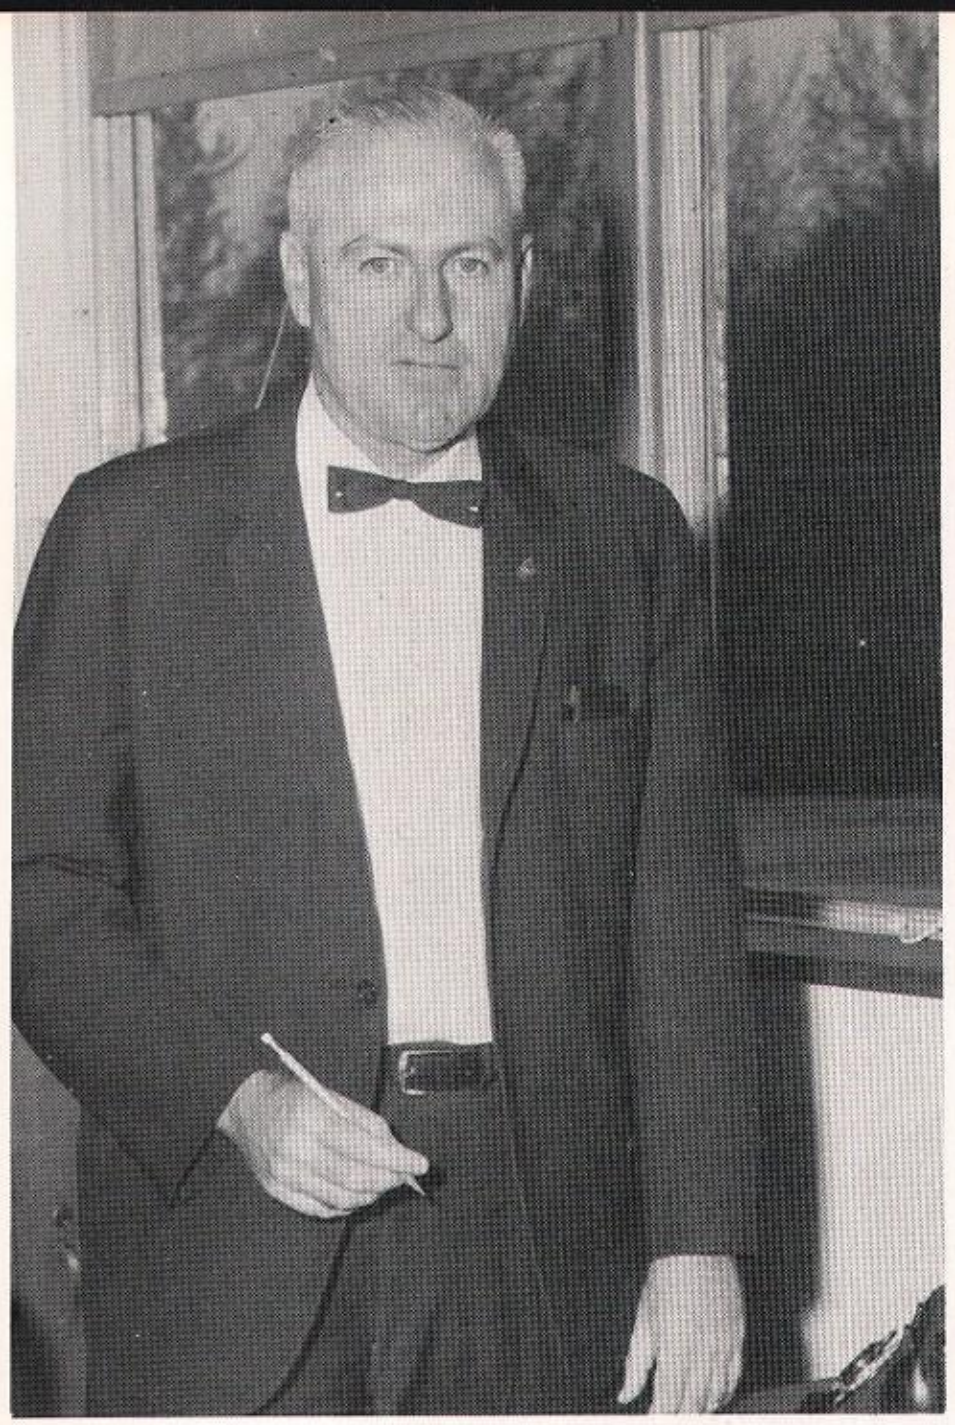
Business Assistant to Dr. King and the Jointure Board, Lewis Rowles has an extensive background in the world of industry. He supervises the non-profesional staff, the various funds and financial accounts of N.P.H.S.

As Curriculum Coordinator, William Kerr has the responsibility of correlating programs of study with various departments.

Robert Chubb advises substitute teachers, directs student discipline, and chairs the counseling committee. Mr. Chubb is serving his first full year as assistant to the principal.

Thomas Chilcote, Administrative Assistant, plans programs for student assemblies, helps to establish and carry out school policies, along with teaching United States History. He also is in charge of the faculty master teaching schedule.

Best Wishes
Thomas C. Chilcote



Not only does James Mullen, Chairman of the Guidance Department, strive to guide the students of N.P.H.S., but he also tries to improve the community by directing the adult evening school.

GUIDANCE. . .

A SERVICE FOR STUDENTS,

PARENTS, SCHOOL STAFF,

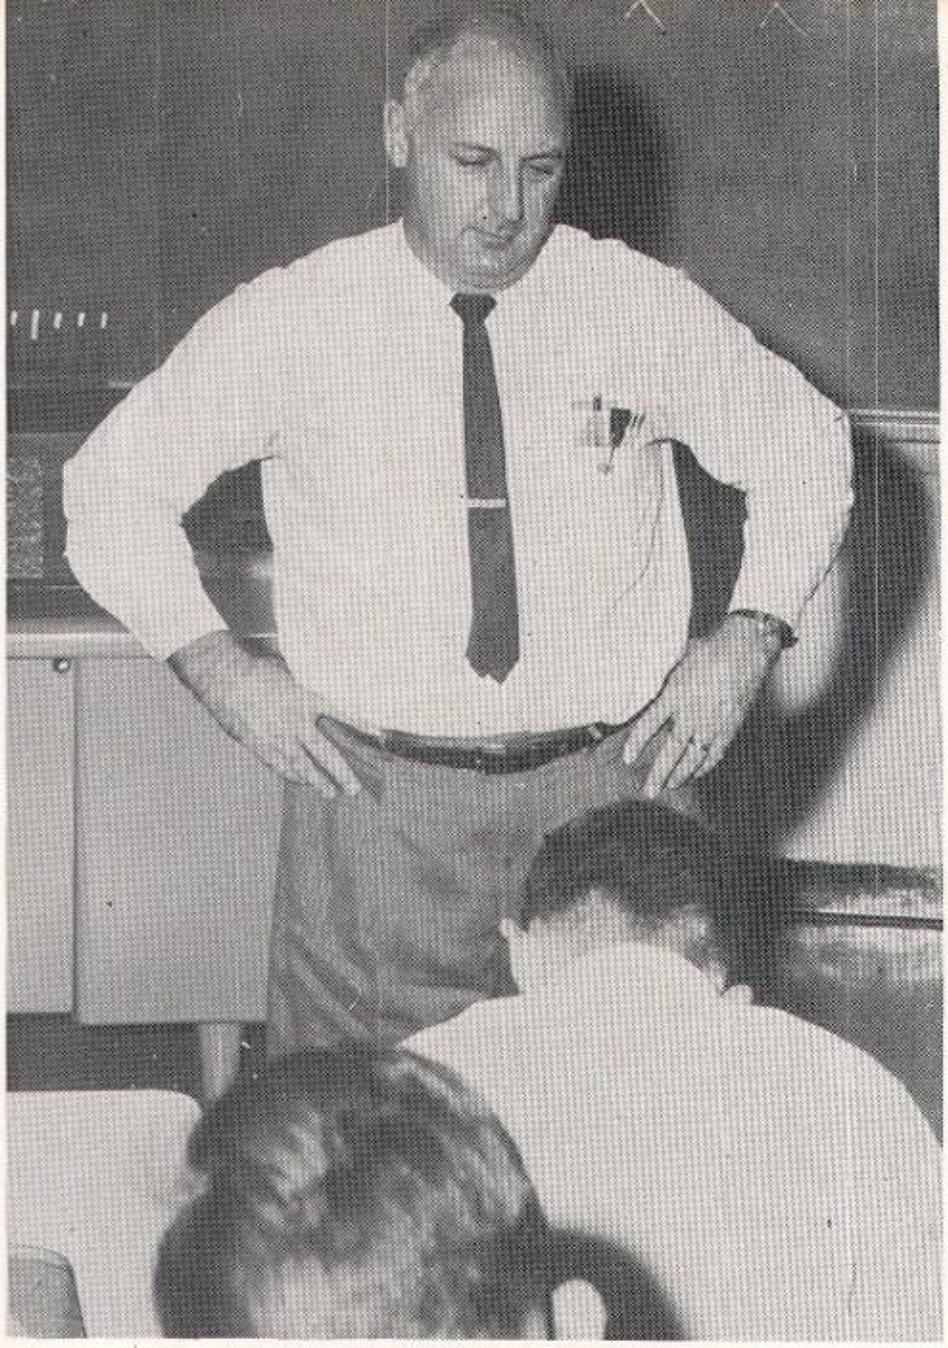
AND COMMUNITY.

GOAL...

TO HELP PEOPLE

TO HELP THEMSELVES.

Gerald Bower's past contacts with the Boy's Club have given him experience in N.P.H.S.'s guidance department which proved valuable to aiding students.



Donald Huber, one of N.P.H.S.'s guidance counselors, consults with students on their future plans.

Diane Hackman is secretary to the Guidance Office.

CLASS

We, the graduating class of 1965, being of sound mind, do record this our last will and testament.

To the Junior Class, Kevin Eckert leaves seniority and Karen Kehler wills a final year on the top of the pile and the greatest school spirit ever. Jim B. Clark wills the Class of '66 a book entitled How to Cheer at Pep Rallies and Eddie Reinbold leaves them his golden vocal chords.

Suzy King wills her Packard hearse to the Driver Ed. Department for advanced training.

To Mr. Couglin, Glenn Kilburn leaves one karate-proof desk and Carter Schroy leaves him 4 million balsa wood desk tops so he can "scare the heck out of his classes." Cindy Krause leaves Mr. Coughlin a new Rambler jacket and an old Ford. Cheryl Cullingford leaves "one red F" and Harvey Erickson wills him the slogan "our team's good." Kate Smagalski leaves him one set of worn out nerves and a worry wort. A new English accent is left to him by Lorraine Stephany and Alice Kauffman.

Cindi Usic leaves her beat-up majorette uniform to the next head majorette.

Bill Yoder wills to all future bench-warmers the crack in the bench on the 50 yard line and a season's supply of instant heat.

Brian Steager presents Mr. Muir with The ABC's of Nursery Rhymes and Larry Refsnider leaves him a pair of spurs to keep his Mustang running.

Ray Naylor leaves Mr. Henning a comb and Jim Edler wills him some good jokes.

Sheri Bowers has been left Lorraine Jobson's height and Bev Landis' nickname, Mouse.

Esther Guenst presents Bonnie Johnson with all her left over absentee excuses and class entrance permits along with a place in the line.

For Mr. Collins, who says he has no answers, only questions, Linda Wheelin and Carol Racz will him all the answers; also 1000 orange shamrocks. Jim Kriebel wishes to leave him the term paper he never did.

Sandy Bergey leaves Miss Swoyer any extra "svenska" lessons so that she can talk to her classes. Ginger Wright wills all her shorthand tablets, books and pens back to her. Gary Silknitter leaves his fingerprints on the typewriter keys.

Helen Anne Kobasa and Barbara Jones will their left over chewing gum to future students of Mrs. Gilhart.

Linda Sue Kriebel leaves Barbara Frick her insurance policy.

Betsy Nolan awards Linda Gardocki her out-of-tune piccolo-and a few new rubber bands to hold it together.

Richard Weand gives Gary Anderson permission to use his "bird calls."

Marion Smallwood leaves Joe Smallwood with the slightly used nickname of "Shrimp"

Carol Fox leaves a dirty gym sock to Diane Weiss and Sharon Fox.

Ethel Butler leaves JoAnn Harris her wittiness.

Dee Hartzell leaves Mr. Greger all the lab. equipment she broke and all her good grades. John Goodhart leaves him his chemistry book and old wrestling sweat shirt, and John McClay wills his wrestling shoes to preserve his quaint image.

Bob Brown leaves Coach Giuaranna a year's supply of bubble gum.

Bob Focht leaves 50 pounds of wrestling muscles to Dan Zitin. Wayne Duckworth wills Dan the ability to succeed.

Randy Schatz leaves a box of dietary cookies for both Tom and Andy Beebe so they can lose weight.

Dave Northrop, Donnarae Heiler, John Hall and Bill Bartholomew all will some bow ties to Mr. Vizzard to enhance his wardrobe. Rick Wimmer presents him with a subscription to Gentleman's Quarterly.

Dale Rodenhaver obligingly hands over to Kathy Acuff TOTAL responsibility of senior manager for the girls' basketball team for which she has worked so hard.

Peggy Stewart has been willed Judy Erhardt's purple feet and her recipe for arsenic tea.

Harold Morton leaves his height to Joe Smallwood.

Lynn Buzby and Virginia VanSciver leave to Miss Bentley their washed out, weather worn faded, pre-shrunk gym suits and dirty sneakers. Linda Cooper leaves her worn out back brace for Miss Bentley's "invalid" pupils. Jane Pole wills her a bagpipe to go with her kilt and Debbie Delp bequeaths her freshly washed and ironed pink, blue, yellow and white hair ribbons for Victory.

One used seat belt is June Heitzman's gift to Mr. Crawford.

To Mrs. Gilhart, John Bryner leaves the record "Put on a Happy Face."

Mr. Hepner is to the recipient of John Spencer's skillfully jammed office practice machines.

Regina Seiple gives Kevin Heenan some of her quietness!

Sharon Kulp bequeathes to Mr. Nuneviller a life time supply of Beechnut Peppermint gum to be chewed while he watches Lloyd Thaxton.

Mrs. Moyer is left one pair of unbreakable skis by Mary Chambers.

WILL

Linda Faul wills Mr. Leonard a private secretary with an organized desk and file cabinet. Pam Drummond leaves him a graveyard of Boneheads and Linda Fellman, a new 1966 crop of Cabbage Heads.

A statue of Rodin's "The Kiss" is Rosey Ross's gift to Warren Helman.

Peggy Vialle leaves the Health Suite a supply of blue pills, patriotic to NPHS, instead of green ones.

Diane Tomasetti bestows upon Miss Rogers the two graduated cylinders and crucible lids that she broke in chemistry lab.

Carol Derstine wills Miss Watchorn a homeroom that responds to "Stand" and "May I have your attention, please?" every morning.

Hennrietta Camburn leaves the car and car key to Beverly Camburn so that she can get to school faster.

Karen Holl leaves a pack of gum to each Junior girl to be chewed only in Miss Bentley's gym classes. Judy Lukens and Ellen Dando leave the job of giving Miss Bentley a "rough" time to any two junior girls. Linda Moyer leaves her gym locker to any girl who can stand it.

Eddie Reinbold bestows his magnificent Spanish brain on Miss. Senator. Judy Cullingford leaves her one uncovered Spanish book.

Darlene Warner leaves Willie Lewis some No-Doz to keep awake during Junior assemblies.

Eleanor Kemp leaves her nickname, Binx, to Doris Kemp.

Mr. Replogle's third period physics class wills an adding machine to his next year's physics classes to count his "What's?" Buddy Hensler wishes to leave him the answers to all those "whats" and a "what" silencer. Barbara Grebb wills all the admit slips from late gym students.

David Sitler leaves three 800's in the College Board Mathematics Achievement Tests to Mr. Golazeski.

Joanne Kaler and Karen Kehler leave Ginger Rittenhouse a stuffed-up, sloppy senior gym locker.

Abby Montgomery wills a new sports jacket to Mr. Chilcote.

Larry Moyer leaves Bob Davis with the overwhelming duties of President of the Vocal Ensemble.

Lou Reimers wills Mr. Majeski one year's supply of bouncing gum balls.

Mr. Jacobs has been willed Bill Starrett's typewriter that makes too many mistakes.

Cheryl Roberts wills her seventh grade gym suit that has never been washed to Judie Miller.

To Mr. Balchunas, Lynne Kohler wills her great speed and her name "Lynnie" which he so "graciously" gave her. Sharon Troxel, on behalf of her first period class, leaves Mr. Balchunas all first year shorthand books and all their A's.

Jim Ruth leaves Carol Yearick some flower seeds and transmission teeth.

Nick Long wills one silver wire wheel complete with chrome knock-off hub cap from a 1956 MGA to Linda Schmidt.

Libbie Ziegler wills Mr. Mosakowski her bleached hair with dark roots.

Chris Glebe leaves the famous Neuroth slogan "WORK BIG!" to its originator.

Pete Beaver bequeaths 1000 yds. of string to Mr. Stewart to tie around his finger.

So let there be a will! It reflects only those things which are ours to leave. May you accept these things and forever behold us as

Roger - el sax

Chip,
To a real nice guy.
Best of luck always and never forget our Chem. class.
Stay as nice as you are and be good. Remember always the class of "66"—
THE GREATEST.

Bev

Chip,
You know
your my favorite band member don't you? Thanks for all the rides home, my mom still wants to know who it was.
Fifth year will be the greatest.

Love,

Chip- (from 1"artist" to another)
Here you are sitting in the middle of a barren desert
on a lumpy rock pile contemplating the problems of the world which have been thrust upon you now that you are a senior. The turpulent state of the world is running through your mind and you are very depressed.
You will arise from the wasteland and return to your cold water
flat, and paint a visual expression of your turbid emotions..... you will sell it for mucho dinero and be my 4 rico. Hi FRIEND!

Seriously, Keep painting. Best of luck in school too.

Always,
Nina
